OLD TYPE SETS TO BE USED FOR 'THE RIVALS'

In designing sets for "The Rivals" use has been made of the type of scenic unit which was conventional in the late 18th century when his Richard B. Sheridan comedy hit was popular. Flat painted drops and wing sets with very little 'practical' or realistic detail will be used.

Audiences of the 18th century accepted this type of background, but the modern audience which is accustomed to realistic sets will have to receive it in a spirit of play or tolerance, states Wendell Johnson, designer of the sets.

Three years ago the same type of set was used when the San Jose Players produced "The Beaux Strategem" by Farquhar, a play of the earlier part of the 18th century. At that time candles were used in the chandeliers and are footlights. Candles will again serve as footlights for "The Rivals".

A canvas drop will substitute for a curtain, and the forestage will be built out so the actors will have a closer contact with the audience.

Designs for the sets will be on display in the library in a few weeks. A similar technique will be employed in designing sets for "East Lynne" which will be produced during the winter quarter.

RADIO SOCIETY TRYOUTS SET FOR ROOM 155

Tryouts for Radio Speaking Society will be held tomorrow afternoon at 4 o'clock in room 155. Those who want to try out should bring a script of their own choosing and also one from the library. Scripts need not be original, but should be about two minutes long. They may be had by asking for KJSJ scripts at the reserve desk in the library.

According to club leaders, any one may try out. Experience is not necessary. All those interested should sign up in front of Mr. R. L. Irwin's office, room 165, in advance of the tryouts.

Weekly Swing Concert In Quad Tomorrow Noon

Students are asked by the Social Affairs committee to bring their own records for the weekly swing concert tomorrow noon.

At the meeting yesterday in the Student Union, the committee decided to accept requests and to make dedications whenever possible. To do this, however, a large supply of records would be necessary.

Anyone who owns records or knows where to get some is asked to bring them to the person in charge of the public address system in the quad tomorrow. Requests will be taken there also.

Plans for the approaching student body dances were discussed by the committee. For the dance following the Hardin-Simmons game October 17, it was decided to carry out the football theme by transforming the gym into a stadium.

The dance will be free to anyone with either a student body or a library privilege card. One member of each couple must be a registered student in the college. Admission for outsiders is 40 cents. Dancing will be from 10:30 to 12:30 o'clock. Refreshments will be available.

Students Invited To Three-Day Nurses' Institute

District twelve of the California State Nurses' association is holding a three-day institute beginning tomorrow morning at 10 a.m. in the Montgomery theater of the Civic auditorium.

All students are invited to attend without charge upon presentation of their student body cards.

There will be three programs daily. The first will begin daily at 10 a.m., the next will be at 2:30 on Wednesday and Friday, and at 3 Thursday. The evening program will begin at 8 p.m.

Miss Gladys Nevenzel, instructor in the Home Economics department, will speak at 10 a.m. tomorrow on "Food and Nutrition in Relation to Health and Disease".

Other speakers included on tomorrow's program are Dr. J. Earle George, Dr. William G. Sheffer, Dr. C. Kelly Canelo, and Dr. Chauncey D. Leake.

STUDENT COUNCIL SETS RATES FOR REFUND ON CARDS

Refund of $6.25 for student body cards at the end of the first quarter was set by the student council at the second meeting of the quarter last night in the Student Union.

SECOND QUARTER

Second quarter refunds will be $3. After a hotly contested argument, the council voted to have the deadline for buying student body cards October 13. After that date no student may purchase a card which would entitle the bearer to campus and health privileges until the beginning of the winter quarter.

3024 CARDS SOLD

It was estimated by Controller Bud Stewart that 3024 student cards have been sold to date. Total enrollment in the college is around 3500.

The student governing body voted to completely revise the constitution and bring it up to date. A constitution committee, composed of the seven council members and representatives from each of the four classes, will work out a revised system of student law.

Organizations planning activities will only be allowed to enter two tentative dates in the date book in Dean Dimmick's office according to a motion passed by the council last night. One of the dates must be released two weeks before the function is to take place it was decided.

Organization Meets

Spartan Knights, honorary service organization, will hold its next meeting at the home of Duke Don True, 435 South Tenth street, tonight at 7:30.

Discussion of service projects, the formal initiation of new members, and quarterly party will take place.

Students who do not have transportation will meet in the Student Union at 7 p.m., announced Duke True.

Refreshments will be served.

RATES SET FOR LA TORRE SPACE; MUST BE PAID BEFORE PHOTOS TAKEN

All organizations must make arrangements for, and pay for space in La Torre before appointments for photographs can be made, Walter Schmidt, business manager, said yesterday.

Schmidt said that organizations had showed little response to the letters sent them and the requests made by the business staff and many had not made necessary arrangements.

Page rates as announced earlier in the year are: Half page at $7.50, one page $15, two pages $25. Campus clubs and other organizations with less than 15 members must buy a half-page layout. Organizations with 15 to 30 members must buy one page and societies with more than 30 members must buy the two-page layout. No organization will be allowed to buy more space than the membership entitles it to receive. Organizations failing to report to either Schmidt or Leon Torrey will be eliminated from the yearbook.

DEBATERS ELECT GROUP OFFICERS ON WEDNESDAY

All those who took part in any form of debate last year, and those who have signed up, are urged to attend the election meeting at 4 o'clock Wednesday afternoon in room 49, according to Miss Lucie Lawson of the Speech department.

Woodrow Semerau, acting debate manager, and Henry Leland were nominated for the manager post last Wednesday. Attention is called to the fact that nominations are not closed and will be in order at the coming Wednesday meeting.

Other highlights of the meeting will be a discussion on the coming debate season program, on which radio broadcasts and a series of debate conferences will be prominent.

FARM STYLES FOR APO HAYLOFT HOP SATURDAY NIGHT

APO, social fraternity, will hold its 6th annual barn dance Saturday, October 18, at Matasci's Barn on Downer avenue.

Bob Berry and his seven-piece orchestra will furnish the music for the "Hayloft Hop". Hayloft and sweet danceable music will be featured throughout the evening.

"Back to the Farm" style clothing will be the vogue at the gathering. Free cider will be served to all.

Bids for the affair may be purchased for $1.10 per couple at the Controller's office or from any member of the APO.

Dancing will be from 9 to 1.

CERAMICS TO BE TAUGHT TO NON-STUDENTS

Herbert Sanders, Ceramics Instructor, announces a course in ceramics for non-students, beginning Saturday, October 18, from 9 a.m.-12 noon.

The course will run for 15 weeks and will cost the class $15 for the full course. Mr. Sanders said the class will be for beginners as well as advanced students. Mr. Sanders asks any one interested to get in touch with either himself or the Art department office.

POLICE STUDENTS UNAVAILABLE FOR CIVIC FUNCTIONS

Because of the shortage of men in the Police school, it has been necessary to change the policy of gratuitous policing of civic events, according to William Wiltberger, head of the school.

"The draft," declared Wiltberger, "has depleted our personnel to such an extent that we are no longer able to loan men out for civic functions to the degree that we have in the past. Many of the police majors are subject to call, while the remainder have only a year or two of schooling left. Thus each man is trying to get in as much schooling as possible before being called."

He went on to add that any extra time the students had was being utilized in national defense preparation. Studies and odd jobs round out each man's program, leaving little if any time for policing of worthy civic events.

Organization Pins Catalogued

In order that a San Jose State college catalogue of organization pins can be compiled, all school organizations are asked to bring a sample of their pins to the office of the Dean of Women, according to George Coles, head of the pin committee.

Pins will be borrowed for a brief time in order that they may be copied by Mr. M. Cavagnaro's art class for the purpose of cataloging.

This proposed catalogue of school pins will, when completed, aid future organizations in choosing a group pin, and will avoid any coincidental repetitions in pin designs.

Tennis Club Meets

A meeting of the Women's Tennis club will be held today at 12:30 in the Women's gym. Members may bring their lunch if they like.

During the course of the meeting there will be the election of officers and the discussion of plans for the coming year.

Draft Dodgers

Students who investigated a loud crash on Fourth street in front of the campus early yesterday morning found that a minor collision had occurred between army trucks south bound in convoy.

As army mechanics bent over the hood of one of the stalled trucks, curious students gathered around to gawk and offer unsolicited advice.

One of the mechanics looked up disgustedly at the sidewalk superintendents. Nudging a buddy, he said dryly, "Look at all the draft dodgers!"

LOWERCLASSMEN ELECT PRESIDENT AT POLLS TODAY

George Coles or Paul Borg, who shall we have for president? This is the question sophomores will answer at today's run-off election in front of the Morris Dailey auditorium.

Fourth-year women too, will go to the voting booths, Dorothea Bernsdorf and Audrey Orcutt are the senior AWA candidates appearing on the ballot.

Leon Torrey, election judge, points out that because the seniors are voting for an AWA representative only, men students are not to participate in the election.

The election committee, headed by Torrey, will be on hand to conduct today's final run-off election. Committee members include Gene Long, Ann Wilson, Leslie Burmeister, William Raye, and Lynwood Lyons. These students are representatives of the following service organizations: Tau Deltas, Alpha Phi Omega, Spartan Spears, and Spartan Knights. Polls will be open from 8 to 5 o'clock.

Signs For San Jose State

A worthy undertaking for any or all of the campus service fraternities would be the acquiring and maintaining of "San Jose State College" signs at the San Carlos and Fourth street, and San Fernando and Fourth street limits of the school.

Many tourists have traveled, busy Fourth street, passing by our very front door without ever being aware that they had passed San Jose State. Most of us are proud of our school and this is one way to show off its picturesqueness and beauty to those who may someday come here, or send their children here to school.

Agitation for signs of this sort have been begun before in the editorial columns of the Spartan Daily. At one time a sign at San Antonio and Fourth was erected but for various reasons it did not prove successful.

An organization interested in a project of this type should study all the possibilities and make it simple and not too bold.

There could be no better advertisement for San Jose State college. —Jensen.

Service Organizations Do Their Best

One sees and hears much evidence of the work done by various "service organizations" on-campus at this institution. One group sees to it that parking spaces are marked on the streets bordering the campus; another raises money for equipment for the Health Cottage; others take part in community service. To all of these we owe a debt of gratitude.

Probably one of the least conspicuous and least publicized of these groups is the Patron's Association. Not unknown because of a lack of activity, but rather because the nature of many of their "good deeds" is such that they cannot be made public, the Patron's Association consists of faculty members, faculty wives, but mainly of parents of students.

Among the things the Association has done for San Jose State college has been the establishment of and contributions to the Student Loan Fund. This fund makes it possible for an upper division student who finds himself involved in a temporary crisis to borrow a sum of money until such time as he is able to repay it. Other services have included furnishing of the Varsity House and frequent contributions of furniture and equipment to the men's and women's co-operative houses.

One way that we can thank them is to tell our parents about the Patrons. The group needs a larger membership, for an organization which has service as a main purpose always needs more heads and hands.

That their members, for most part, are neither students nor faculty members here but people not directly in the college picture, makes our debt of gratitude all the larger.

—Moody.

Credit Where Credit Is Due

San Jose State students who have been attending our home football games (and we hope this includes most of you) have undoubtedly noticed the presence of several Police School students, in their uniforms, on duty during the contests.

These budding blue-coats of ours volunteer their services for the games for the prime purpose of gaining practical experience in the work they have chosen, but it goes deeper than that.

They get pay while on duty, yes, but nevertheless they give up a good deal of their own time and enjoyment because we have come to expect it of them.

The job is there to be done, and these men willingly do it. In the last game, one of the largest crowds ever to fill Spartan stadium was on hand, and the fact that that order prevailed throughout the evening order prevailed throughout the evening our police majors.

Twelve hundred Fort Ord soldiers, away from camp and perhaps inclined to overdo their fun, were respectfully held in check, and no real disturbances spoiled anybody's enjoyment of a fine game.

You can thank the Police School for it, and you can show our appreciation in the future by continuing to co-operate with them as you have done in the past.

—Morrow.

25 YEARS AGO

By BILL MORROW

Twenty-five years ago at San Jose Normal school, the "Normal Times", an eight-page weekly, was the official news medium for the mainly feminine student body.

Sappho Society, still-existent women's sorority, made the front page with the presentation of a statue of their namesake to Elizabeth Case, student body president, a woman.

The big athletic event in those days was the basketball game with Chico Normal, played, of course, by women's teams. The woman sports writer of the "Times" staff berated the women of the college for not turning out for team practice in greater numbers.

The men were not entirely overlooked on the sports page, however, and the writer graciously commended the boys' team for its showing against a favored Campbell high school team. The boys had almost won.

Football came in for a boost, too. It seemed the boys were holding impromptu scrimmages in the quad, no less, and were hoping the student body would vote them the $50 necessary to buy equipment so they could play other teams.

Al's Restaurant on Second street was a regular advertiser in the "Times".

"The boys who eat at Al's never have trouble with their studies," ran the slogan.

JUST AMONG OURSELVES

By DR. T. W. MacQUARRIE

Quite a number have not paid student body fees. There may be some misunderstanding, for certainly it is the most remarkable bargain any of you will ever get, and what's more, it makes you part of a grand student body. It's really too bad to go through college chiseling on your fellows. If you do not do your share, you will have a feeling of regret all your life.

If you don't take out that membership, of course, you should be sport enough to get along without the advantages it offers. You should not read the Daily. They have to be left out where they can be taken freely, for we cannot afford to pay for individual delivery, but students who are not members of the student body should not demean themselves by taking something for which they have not paid.

Please do not expect help from the Health cottage service. Last year we had an epidemic just around Christmas time, and we certainly had a lot of people to take care of. The Health cottage was full, and we had 62 patients farmed out to hospitals and sanitariums. For that service the student funds paid. We stopped the epidemic, and got the sick people back to their classes with a minimum loss of time. We may have another epidemic one of these days. In fact, during war-time, epidemics are quite likely to occur. It's good health insurance to belong to the student body.

And also, please don't chisel on games and college parties. If you are not a member of the student body, you are not entitled to attend those functions. Yes, I know, a student should have some entertainment, but you should be willing to pay for it. College life will be a poor memory if you don't take some part in student affairs. Here you have as college mates some of the finest young people to be found in any community. It will be worth your while to make friends.

Don't tell me you cannot afford it. That may be true in one case in a hundred, but if you are able to go to college at all, you should be able to pay the small amount required for the student body. If you haven't the money, see your dean. It is possible that there is a way by which you can earn the money and thereby take your place, with your head up, in all the interesting activities of a fine student body. These are your college years. They will not last long. You should get the most out of them.

Three Backfield Finds Add Power To Frosh Team

With two impressive victories over Salinas and Santa Rosa Junior colleges to their credit, the freshmen football players started practice for their tilt with Modesto Junior college this week.

The freshmen's 21-6 victory over Santa Rosa last Friday night was particularly pleasing to Coach Bud Winter as he had the opportunity to try various combinations in the backfield and line. The result of his experimenting was the discovery of three backs and two line men.

Morris Cabral, who started the season as a third string fullback, got the call to relieve Francis McCrovy and did such a good job of it that Coach Winter is still talking about his rocking, socking line plunging.

Harold Fullride relieved Colin Hill at left half and looked exceptionally fast on reverses and punt returns. He received a Santa Rosa punt on his own 45-yard line and with almost perfect down-field blocking slipped along the sideline into pay dirt only to have the play called back as the frosh had been offside.

The third back to attract attention was right half Mervin Boyce, who scored the second touchdown on a reverse from 10 yards out. He hit his hole at left tackle with such speed that he was over the goal line before Santa Rosa knew what was happening.

That these new backfield men caught Coach Winter's eye doesn't take anything away from McCrovy, Hill or Bill Perry, as all three were nothing short of spectacular. Both Hill and Perry got off several runs of from 15 to 30 yards. McCrovy not only passed well and split the center of the line but with the assistance of left end Bud Engles made nearly half of the freshmen tackles.

The freshmen are a second half ball club. After being held to seven points in the first half they came out on the field and with not more than six offensive plays tore Santa Rosa apart. No small credit for their second half play goes to tackles Charles Zeiback and Kenny Ward, who were the outstanding linemen on the field.

George Graves received a hip pointer in the first quarter of the game and may or may not be ready for the Modesto game. If he isn't, Jack Wilson, who played a good steady game for three quarters, will take his place.

TOUCH FOOTBALL GETS UNDERWAY TODAY AT NOON

Intramural touch football gets started today on the San Carlos turf at noon, with six-man teams making up the newly formed league.

Coach Walt McPherson's four regular class teams will be supplemented by teams from the Police School and other departments in the college.

The "Mongoose" team won the championship play-offs last year, when the six-man style of play was first introduced in the intramural game.

NOTICE

SOCCER SQUAD EYES OPENING TILT WITH BEARS

With the first game less than two weeks away, Coach Gordon Maybury is sending his Spartan soccer team through stiff workouts this week in order to insure top performance against the California shin kickers.

The workouts will be featured with several scrimmages in order to give the more inexperienced members a chance to improve before the season starts, states Maybury.

A practice game with Mission high school was planned for Saturday morning but due to difficulties the high school team couldn't make the trip.

VETERAN BACK

The probable starting lineup, although subject to change if the more inexperienced players come through, will find Harold Sonntag at the goal position. At the full-back spots, Roy Diedrickson, veteran from last year's championship team, and Usher Tucker, reserve last year, will attempt to halt the opponents' drives.

Ernest Figone, letterman last year, will be backed at the half back positions by Bud Recussen, two-year letterman and last year's captain at Los Angeles City college.

STRONG CENTER

To fill the shoes of ex-Captain Fred Albright, Maybury is grooming John Peebles, veteran half last year, and Ted Andrews, last year's reserve. Both have promise of doing a good job at this spot, although Captain Art Tindall is always available for this position, states Maybury.

RESERVES WEAK

Dick Payne will see a lot of action at the fullback spot and Bob Barruether, reserve last year, has shown well on the line, states Maybury. Last week the team was somewhat hampered by small injuries and already this week several minor injuries have occurred. Earl Paulus, out with a leg injury this week, will be a reserve at the goalie spot. Others who will add to the strength of the team after they have had more experience are Al Moniz and Bud Hefner.

The team is showing plenty of spirit this year and will be fighting to the end, win or lose, states Maybury.

According to the California coach, the Bears have the strongest line in years this season and are expected to recapture the championship they lost three years ago.

POLOISTS FACE OLYMPIC CLUB FRIDAY NIGHT

Both the varsity and freshman water polo teams play host to the strong Olympic club septets Friday night in the local pool. The freshmen ball splasers will play the preliminary game with the Winged "O" reserve team at 7 o'clock followed by the varsity tilt at 8:30 o'clock.

Coach Charley Walker will probably start the same line-up in the varsity tilt that started against the San Francisco YMCA team. Both teams suffered losses from last year's squads, states Walker, but to what extent the Winged "O" losses are we will not know until game time.

Two transfers, one veteran, and four freshmen players make up the nucleus for the varsity team this year and with more experience they should develop into a formidable team, states Walker.

The freshman team, playing without the services of two fairly good players, managed to nose out the San Jose Bulldogs last week and should make a better showing this week, states Walker.

However, they will be up against a much stronger team this week and will be hard pressed to hold the Olympic reserves in check. Last year the freshmen were nosed out on two occasions by this same team.

Bruised Spartans Prepare For CCAA Game With Aztecs

By SEBASTIAN SQUATRITO

Still battered and bruised from the physical beating handed them by the big rough and tough Fort Ord team, Coach Ben Winkelman's eleven went through a short, light drill yesterday afternoon. It was the first of a three-day workout before departing for San Diego to play the San Diego State college Aztecs in the first CCAA Conference race. The Spartans are defending champions.

Fred "Bulldog" Lindsey, Henry "Peaches" Antognani, and Gray McConnell were the boys who were out with slight injuries suffered in the "wrestling show" last Friday night.

Lindsey had a bruised back, which is not as serious as first believed. Antognani has a bruised shoulder and McConnell has a sprained hand. All are expected to be ready for the game down in the border city Friday night.

One impressive thing about the Spartans this year has been the work of the line. Figured to be a squad with a strong backfield and an average line, the seven men in front of the ball packers have proved that they are not playing the proverbial second fiddle to the "headline boys".

Bill Donnelly, McConnell, Ken Stanger, Wilbur Wool, Don Allen, and co-Captains Bob Hamill and Ed Wenberg have put up a battle which has drawn the praise of Coach Winkelman. Not only these first string men have pulled through, but reserves like Ken Bailey, Vern Cartwright, Jack Galvin, Hans Wiedenhofer, John Dahl, Darrell Swagerty, Charles Cook and several others have really done their work.

NEWS BRIEFS

Gamma Phi Sigma Holds Initiation

Gamma Phi Sigma, social fraternity, held an informal initiation of new members at Rio Del Mar over the weekend.

Formal initiation of new members—Bob Spalding, Jack Sears, Ray Stewart, Don Hartman, and Nell Anderson—was held Sunday evening at 202 S. 11th street—the Gamma Phi Sigma fraternity house.

Following the formal initiation, the new members were honored at a banquet at the Ste. Claire hotel. Forty members attended, including alumni who came back for this special occasion.

Orrin Turner is president of the fraternity. Joe Weitzenberg, pledge chairman, was in charge of initiation ceremonies.

Phi Upsilon Pi

Phi Upsilon Pi, men's honorary chemistry fraternity, started their fall pledging season Monday night with a smoker at the Lions Den, honoring prospective pledges.

Epsilon Nu Gamma

All members of the Epsilon Nu Gamma pre-engineering societies are asked to attend a noon meeting, Wednesday, in room S216.

The group is to discuss plans for a dinner to be held in the near future.

Faculty Attends Pot-Luck Picnic

San Jose State college faculty members and their families attended the pot-luck picnic sponsored by the college Science department at Alum Rock park Friday evening.

The committee consisted of Dr. G. H. McCallum, Dr. Robert Rhodes, Miss Gertrude Witherpoon and Mrs. Victor Peterson. Seventy-five guests attended. Faculty members, their wives and children were present.

The entertainment consisted mainly of community singing led by Dr. Robert Rhodes and his mother. Dr. Carl Duncan and Dr. M. F. Vessel amused the happy throng by operating mouth organs.

A few of the guests left to attend the Fort Ord-San Jose football game; others remained to enjoy themselves around the camp fire.

Epsilon Pi Tau Plans Social Events

Epsilon Pi Tau, the national fraternity open to Industrial Arts majors only, offered as its theme last night "Good Fellowship" at a get-together that was held in the college Student Union.

The Epsilon Pi Tau extends as far east as the state of Maine.

In order for an Industrial Arts major to be able to become a member, his grades must average a B.

Several other such parties are planned, according to Mr. H. A. Sotzin, head of the Industrial Arts department.

Box Lunch Feed

Freshman women are invited to a box lunch to be held at the Student Center Thursday from 12 to 2 o'clock, announces YWCA Secretary Jeanne Thoits.

There will be a social get-together after which refreshments will be served. Women students interested should phone Ballard 5468 for reservations or should write Eileen Phifer, 120 E. San Antonio street.

Social Service Club Meets Tomorrow

The Social Service club will have an evening meeting to plan activities for the coming quarter at the house of Dr. Bertha Mason, college staff physician, 82 South 17th street.

The meeting will be at 7:15 tomorrow. The program includes a recreational program for Mexican girls; saving dolls' clothes; and helping children at the day nursery. Anyone interested is invited.

Fraternity Meets

Kappa Delta Pi, education fraternity, will hold its first meeting of the year in room 155 today.

The meeting will start at 7:30 p.m. with a surprise program and refreshments served the group.

President Art Tindell is to discuss the year's plans at the meeting.

There's A Wrong Way

The correct way to wash sweaters is shown in a display in the home economics building as you enter the northwest door.

Commerce Party Thursday Evening

Special secondary commerce majors expecting to attend the annual fall party Thursday night at 6:30 in O'Brien's Pompeian room must sign up before tomorrow noon with Miss Norma Gillespie, room 137A.

Freshmen and sophomores are especially urged to attend because topics to be discussed will be beneficial in helping them to plan advanced work. Any student who is a special secondary business education major is invited.

Dr. Hunt Speaks At Student Center

The Public Affairs committee will begin its weekly Fireside luncheon in the Student Center Fireside room at 12 noon today, Florence Newberry, chairman, announced today.

Dr. Hunt of the Social Science department will speak on the subject, "The Social and Economic Effects of the War". Speakers for the rest of the quarter will mold their subjects around various fields in relation to effects of the war.

The students, faculty and their friends are invited to the meeting, and to take part in the discussions. Everyone attending is invited to bring his lunch.

Experiment Fails As Students Gawk

If you wondered about the man who was painting the sidewalk in front of the Little Theater yesterday, you shouldn't have.

Many students stopped and watched the man at his work, then scratched their heads and went on. The man was carefully painting the sidewalk with a yellow liquid only to inquiringly watch the stuff fizz up and evaporate. Then he would wash the cement and gently feel its surface with the tips of his fingers.

The man was J. C. Stillwell, Superintendent of Buildings and Grounds; the liquid was muriatic acid, and the idea was that the acid might etch the cement and thereby assure better traction during the slippery winter months. Incidentally, it didn't work. This, however, is unimportant because the sound scientific method of experimentation was employed by Mr. Stillwell, and he now knows what not to do.

LIBRARIAN VISITS SALT LAKE CITY AS LECTURER

Wednesday evening Miss Doris Gates of the Education reading room will leave for Salt Lake City to speak before the Utah Education association and the Utah Library association.

Miss Gates, author of two children's books, will speak to meetings of the Education and Library associations Friday. Her subjects will be, "Must Our Children Be Sociologists" and "Presenting Books to Children".

Saturday Miss Gates will speak before a joint meeting of Principals and Librarians on "Horizons Far and Clear".

Riding Club Calls For More Men Students

From a riding club of 15 women students, one lone male rider made a plea today for at least one more person of his sex to join the club.

The club, headed by Helena Griffiths, general elementary major, meets on Tuesday and Thursdays in front of the Women's gym or at the Sunset Academy at 4 o'clock on either or both of these days.

A rate of 50 cents an hour is charged each rider. The rides which are conducted through Alum Rock park are planned not to extend over one hour.

Many outings such as moonlight rides and barbecues have been planned for the year and the larger the membership the less expensive these trips will be.

All those who wish to tryout for the club are asked to meet in front of the Women's gym today at 4 o'clock. Transportation will be furnished.

NOTICES

There will be a Freshman council meeting today at 5 o'clock in the Morris Dalley auditorium.

— Bob Arthur.

There will be a meeting of the Forestry club in room S207 tonight. All old and new members are urged to attend.

Women P. E. minors meet tomorrow in Women's gym at 7 a.m. Badminton and refreshments follow.

BROYLES' PRE-LEGAL REPORT IN LIBRARY

LIBRARY SHELVES INSTALLED IN NEW LIBRARY

Yesterday 300 of the 500 old library shelves sent out to be repaired were returned and installed in the new library. Last night Miss Joyce Backus, head librarian, and her staff finished placing books on the shelves in the 900 series.

Also on the incomplete list in the new library is the Fine Arts room which will house music and the visual arts when completed. Now in the Fine Arts room is an exhibit of water color prints. From time to time other exhibits will be on the walls, according to Miss Neva Le Blond in charge of the room.

De Voss Speaker At Commerce Student Banquet

Dr. James De Voss, dean of the upper division, will speak on teacher training requirements at the annual fall get-together of special secondary commerce majors Thursday evening at 6:30 o'clock. The affair will be held in the Pompeian room at O'Brien's.

Tomorrow will be the deadline for students who are planning to attend the get-together to sign up in Dr. Earl Atkinson's office in the commerce wing.

Guests attending the dinner are Mr. and Mrs. P. E. Curry of the Southwestern Publishing company, San Francisco; Professor Joe DeBrum, business education graduate school, Stanford; Professor Eta Ross Stuart, business education graduate school, University of California; and Dr. and Mrs. James DeVoss, dean of the upper-division, San Jose State college.

NOTICE

There will be a general meeting for all pre-nursing students on Wednesday, October 8, in room S227 at which time the fall quarter officers will be elected. Entering freshmen students are especially urged to be present. Dr. Elder will be the guest speaker.

Three years ago 36 students signed up with Mr. O. M. Broyles as future aspirants to the legal profession. Among them were Al Aiton, a former student body president, and Doan Carmody, varsity football player.

Today there is but one person left on the list who is still preparing for law—Masao Kanemoto. He is in his third year at San Clara Law school.

This message was delivered by Mr. Broyles to those attending the Pre-Legal club meeting yesterday.

However, he went on to point out that interest in the law and pre-legal education is of value to students in many types of work even if they never actually become practicing lawyers.

As faculty adviser to the Pre-Legal club at San Jose State college, Mr. Broyles wrote a report on Pre-Legal Education last year which is to be found in the college library. He suggested that all pre-legal students read it.

The next meeting of the Pre-Legal club will be held at 12:30 Monday. There will be an election of officers and discussion of various legal questions.

There will also be some night meetings this quarter so that students who are unable to attend noon meetings can participate in pre-legal activities.

Alpha Eta Sigma Arranges For Betterment Box

Alpha Eta Sigma, national accounting fraternity, held its weekly meeting last Friday at which time a committee of three was appointed to make arrangements for a Betterment box in which accounting questions may be deposited. The committee is composed of WALTER SCHMIDT, president, HOWARD COHN, vice-president, and JIM LOWRY.

A vote of thanks was given Herbert Hood, an honor member of the fraternity, for his contribution of 150 pamphlets and books to the accounting library of the fraternity.
