Give To The Community Chest

The campus drive for Community Chest funds gets underway in full sway this week, with Tuesday of next week as a deadline. Three hundred dollars has been set as a goal for student contributions.

Three hundred dollars is a lot of money. Getting down to facts, it comes to less than ten cents per student if EVERYONE contributes. The price of a glass of milk, approximately.

There is, actually, no reason, not to say no excuse, for not contributing. The amount is so small that a student cannot miss it—does one miss the ten cents spent for binder paper, or bus fare, or cokes during one day on-campus?

Answer To Press Agent's Dream

The answer to a press agent's dream; that's the status of the Hardin-Simmons football squad this year. Reputedly boasting one of the classiest passing attacks in the South this team exemplifies Texas football at its peak. Last year the "Cowboys" swept through the season undefeated and untied to rank among the top teams in the nation.

This year, although weakened by graduating seniors, the Texans will field a scrappy, colorful outfit with a never-say-die reputation.

"So what?" you say. "This is an editorial column, not a sports page." So this—ever since San Jose started a consistent winning habit a few years back, some die-hard people have complained that our opponents

Those dimes, pooled together, will feed three needy families for an entire winter— isn't doing our part toward feeding a dozen hungry people for three months more important than three thousand students enjoying their quota of cokes for one day?

Our cokes, our binder paper, our bus rides, even lunch for one day—they're terribly little things compared to a project of the magnitude of this one. Things are given us here—health care, social life, a beautiful campus, music, an education so low in price that it's actually, if not technically, free—it's time for us to do a little giving!

GIVE!

were all decidedly of second calibre. The students, it seems, preferred to see the "big names" play rather than watch their own Spartans battle some so-called "push over".

Perhaps this would account for the half-filled stands on the State side for the first three games. At any rate this excuse no longer holds water. According to the coaches, who rarely, if ever, understate an opponent, the Hardin-Simmons Cowboys represent one of the toughest hurdles that a San Jose squad has ever been asked to face.

The athletic department spent a great deal of money to bring this eleven out here. What will the student response be in the way of attendance Friday night?

—Cook.

JUST AMONG OURSELVES

By DR. T. W. MacQUARRIE
President San Jose State College

I wouldn't be surprised if our Community Chest contribution year were to pass all previous records. There is so much suffering and horror in the world today that our sympathies are aroused, and sympathy loosens the purse strings as well as the heart strings.

Some of the faculty contributions are showing a considerable improvement over last year. I know of one that is almost fifty per cent higher. (They must have had a baby in that house or an increase in salary. It looks like gratitude for something.)

I was in a barber shop one time during a Community Chest drive and the collector came in. Every barber stuck in his bit and the customers were asked if they would like to contribute also. One man was playing a slot machine. He had been at it for some time, with no results, but he was a determined fellow and stuck to it. When the collector came to him, he stopped his playing for a moment and said, "Say, listen, I wouldn't give your old Chest a cent. I wouldn't get no returns from an investment like that."

(At the very best you can get your money back from a slot machine only once in five times, and usually the ratio is much worse than that. The chance of gaining anything is almost nil.)

But, excuse me, I was talking about the Chest. The faculty will do well, of course, perhaps as much as $3,000, but our student body will have a battle. They were notified about it early enough, and they are working hard now.

Some years ago—it was the year of the big snow, I believe—a young fellow who is now on our faculty was student body president, and did he go after that Community Chest money! We had less than 2000 students but he turned in over $500.

He got a lot of the lunch money that floats around here during noon time. Many and many a student went without lunch that day and stuck in his two-bits. It was a time, too, when we seem to have had some aristocrats that used to go down to O. B.'s every morning. Where they got the money I don't know. Prunes, probably. Our getter made them stick in six-bits each.

He didn't pay much attention to his school work that week and Dean Elder sent for him.

"See here, young fellow," said the dean, "you're slighting your studies. You're going to have some awful marks to show your kiddies some day. What about it?" "It's just this way," said the student body president, "I'm collecting for the Community Chest this week and we're going to make a record. I'd rather send in another $100 than get an 'A'."

(The dean, by the way, was publicity manager for the Chest that year, and was he on the spot! He finally had to kick in with a little contribution himself although he had already done his part in the faculty drive.)

NOTICES

All members of Kappa Delta who were inducted into the organization prior to April 1, 1941, are required to pay their annual dues before November 1. All of the members wishing to retain their standing should see that their dues are in Mr. Sweeney's hands before October 28.

The Rally committee will meet in the Student Body office at 12:30 today. Please be prompt.

HAVE YOU TRIED?

AUTUMN BIRTHDAY CAKE

October? Who has a birthday in October? Surely someone in the house has one this month. Surprise her or him with a birthday cake.

Ingredients:

½ cup butter
¾ cup sugar
3 egg yolks
¾ cup sugar
1 cup cocoanut milk
1 teaspoon vanilla
3 cups sifted cake flour
½ teaspoon salt
3 teaspoons baking powder
3 egg whites, stiffly beaten
Cream butter and first mentioned sugar until light and smooth. Beat egg yolks until light and fluffy. Combine two mixtures, sift dry ingredients together three times and add dry to cream mixture alternately with the cocoanut milk, to which the vanilla has been added.

Fold in lightly and stiffly beaten egg whites and bake in two medium layer pans, well greased, 25 to 35 minutes at 375 degrees. Cool before frosting. Double the recipe

SPORTS SCRAPS

By
"SCRAPPY" SQUATRITO

Tonight will be "Spartan pigskinners' night" as the football squad takes over the men's gym to hold their annual dance. Only players, coaches, the senior manager and their dates will be allowed to the two-hour dance which will be from 8 to 10 p.m.

Pity Basketball Coach Walt McPherson, for if anyone needs it, he sure does. McPherson starts his basketball practice Thursday night and greeting him will be only six members of the 1940-41 CCAA championship squad.

Among the many who will not show up will be all of his centers; namely, Dick Uhrhammer who was graduated, Menno Siebert who is working for a railroad company, and Fred Kmetovic who dropped out of school last week. These three boys were the tallest members of his squad.

P. S. Don't take too many of those aspirins, Mr. McPherson!

One would think the Spartan football team has gone Mexican to see them in their sombreros, Mexican belts, and shoes. They required them in Southern California and Tiajuana over the weekend.

Assistant yell leader Kenny Alford and Gareth Adams hitchhiked down to San Diego for the game last Friday, and were lucky to catch a ride with Melvin Douglas's secretary from Salinas to Hollywood. Alford and Adams followed head yell leader Tom Taylor who traveled down with the team.

Guests of the Kiwanis club were the football squad and coaching staff at the Hotel Ste. Claire yesterday noon. The affair was the annual feed given the pigskinners by the city club. Highlights of the banquet were the speeches of the Spartan coaching staff.

Our request for more freshman football managers in this column met with such success that beside the freshman, sophomore, junior, and senior men to answer our pleas, three women volunteered their services. Georgette Costere, Jean Benoit, and Aileen Wenberg. Ed Wenberg's sister, were the brave souls.

Too bad the P.E. heads couldn't let them sign up; we missed our chance of bossing the women, and besides, think of the turnout that Coach Ben Winkelman would have had.

TRACK MEETING

There will be a special meeting of all track and cross country men Thursday at 12:30, announces Coach Bud Winter. At this time all cross country men will sign up. Several meets are planned this year with teams in the bay area. Freshmen as well as others are invited. No experience is needed, states Winter.

Wilbur Wool Out For Five Weeks As Boster Returns

The bugaboo of all football teams has finally caught up to the Spartans of San Jose State. The latest victim to fall is Wilbur Wool, first string center and defense signal caller.

Wool will be lost for at least five weeks because of a broken ankle suffered in the San Diego game. This leaves Coach Ben Winkelman with only three centers for the Hardin-Simmons game Friday, one of the toughest teams on the Spartan schedule.

Charlie Cook, sophomore transfer from Compton junior college, is the only one of the three who has played this year. Sempot Saghetallian, a 235-pound boy, is one player and might get his chance Friday. Yesterday's practice saw the return of Charles Boster who was injured just before the Texas A & I game. However, he may not be ready to play Friday.

To meet this emergency Winkelman has shifted Vern Cartwright from left tackle and Jack Kemper from right tackle. Both men will feel right at home, Cartwright is a former all-league center in high school, and Kemper was also a star center in his high school days.

Although they will be able to play Friday night, the first team is so riddled with minor injuries that Winkelman kept it out of scrimmage last night, and possibly tonight and tomorrow night.

The list of injured men consists of Ken Stanger, who has a bum knee. Don Allen is having a special pad made to fit over an injured nerve high on his shoulder. Henry Antognani has a slight shoulder pointer, and Hans Wiedenhofer, a twisted elbow. Fred Lindsey has a couple of his teeth buried in the turf in San Diego, and the rest of the players who saw action last week are limping around the best they can.

Frosh Gridders Prepare For Moffett Clash

Swearing to avenge last week's defeat by Modesto Junior college, the Spartan Freshman football machine rolled into a week of preparation for the Moffett Field Flyers' "B" team.

The teams seem to be equally matched, both being fast and both using the same system. Both teams lost their last game during the second half and both teams will be trying to make up for the defeat.

The Flyers dropped their game last Saturday to the big and powerful Santa Clara frosh by a 25 to 0 score. Moffett Field is better than the score, according to Frosh Coach Bud Winter, and boast of an exceptionally strong forward line.

With the return of the freshmen to full strength, Winter is planning on bombing the Flyers with a fancy aerial attack. With Perry and Fulridge ready to move, the Frosh backfield will be capable of handling the ball and should the occasion demand it will open up with an assortment of lateral passes and fancy plays which call for very exact timing.

Varsity Poloists Prep For Indian JV Encounter

Pleased with the showing that the varsity made Friday night against the Olympic club, Coach Charley Walker will send his team through heavy practice this week for their encounter with the Stanford university junior varsity team.

Despite the shortage of reserves, Coach Walker has developed a smooth-working squad that has come through the first two games of the season without defeat.

Centered around four freshmen from last year's team, two transfers and one veteran, the varsity rank right up among the top, states Walker.

Especially pleasing last Friday was the showing of Delmar Armstrong at the forward spot in the place of Parker Snow.

Frosh Poloists Prepare For Junior PAA Meet

Coach Charley Walker will send his freshman water polo team through strenuous practice this week for their coming invasion of the Sequoia high school pool in Redwood City when they enter the Junior Pacific Athletic association water polo championships Friday and Saturday.

The tournament will include high schools, college freshman and junior club teams in the Bay Area. Sequoia and Palo Alto high schools, Stanford and California freshmen, and Olympic club reserves will probably be among the entering teams, states Walker.

Although outclassed in the second half by a strong Olympic club reserve team, Coach Walker was pleased with the showing the freshmen made Friday night and with more experience they should be nearly as strong as last year's frosh team.

Added strength should come from John Goulette, who has been out the last week, if he returns to the line-up in the forward spot, states Walker.

INTER-FRAT TOUCH FOOTBALL TODAY

Inter-fraternity rivalry gets underway today at 3 o'clock with four of the six on-campus social fraternities facing each other on the San Carlos turf in the first games of the six-man touch football tourney.

Today the Gamma Phi Sigma squad will encounter the Alpha Pi Omega gridders while the Delta Theta Omega team will meet the Delta Sigma Gamma six.

Thursday the Beta Chi Sigma team will open against the Alpha Pi Omega team and Sigma Gamma Omega team will make its debut against the Delta Sigma Gamma gridders.

The tourney will continue until all teams have met each other twice. Hal Carruth will be in charge of officiating, states Bob Roberts, chairman of the tournament.

NOTICE

Pi Nu Sigma invites all pre-nursing students to a meeting Thursday at 12:10. Bring your lunch. Plans for the coming year will be discussed.

Sophomore Centers

Two of the reasons the Spartan backs will have a hard time penetrating the Hardin-Simmons line Friday night are Eddie Sprinkle and Hudie Bagley, who are playing their first year on the varsity squad and doing a bang-up job.

Sprinkle will start Friday night but both players will see plenty of action during the game. Both played on last year's frosh eleven.

NOTICE

Japanese club meeting today in room 7 at 12:30.

INTRAMURAL TODAY AT NOON

The second games of the intramural touch football tourney will get underway today at noon with six teams battling it out on three gridirons.

To date the Chauncies, Bobcats, and Police teams are undefeated, winning their games last week. The YMCA, Coinsados, and Stinker elevens lost their first games and the Spartan Stags have yet to play.

APPOINTMENTS RECEIVED BY COMMERCE GRADS

According to a list released today by Edward Haworth, appointment secretary, the following '41 and '40 graduates in business education have been placed.

Special secondary graduates placed are Emily Currier, secretary to Fred Wool, San Jose attorney; Harry Edwards, drafted; Edith Gandolfe, secretary, Los Gatos high school; and Norma Gillespie, secretary and adviser, San Jose State college.

The list continues: Juanita Hadfield, McCloud high school; John Hermsdorf, drafted; Margaret Hull, Inglewood high school; Rupert Kendall, drafted; Ena McBride, Heald's Business college; Arnold Mehlhoff, Pacific Grove high school; Norman Miller, drafted; Otilie Miller, Prune and Apricot Growers, secretary; and Joseph Myers, industrial work, Oakland.

Other '41 graduates placed are Evelyn Pylman, Courtland high school; Eugene Rocchi, Hillman high school; Liladell Silver, Humphrey's school, Stockton; Eleanor Stamper, Sierra Jr. Union high school; and Delbert Williamson, drafted.

Graduates in '40 appointed are Adelaide Colby, Hillman high school; Erwin DeSmet, Mt. Shasta high school; Francois d'Artenay, California Commercial college; Lucille Kephart, Bakersfield high school, secretary; Hulme Kinkade, Washington high school; and Veva Wilson, Salinas high school.

ORCHESIS HOLDS WEEKLY MEETING AT DANCE STUDIO

Orchesis, honorary dance society, will hold its weekly meeting tonight at the Dance Art Studio of Glenna Bell Moenning, last year's president. Address of the studio is 1094 South Second street.

The group will complete plans for the annual symposium October 26. For the first time San Jose State college will be hostess to the seven other colleges and universities which participate in the affair. Members of dance organizations of College of Pacific, San Francisco State college, Stanford university, Mills college, University of Nevada, Fresno State college, and University of California will take part.

Plans for the affair include a "master lesson" to be given by an outstanding dancer in which the performer will give her interpretation and analysis of a modern dance. Chairman of the affair is Dorothea Jordan, graduate student, who has been an Orchesis member for seven years.

APPLEBY ON NEW CONTRACT OVER KQW

Clyde Appleby, "hot clarinet man" and director of his thirteen-piece band, is broadcasting over KQW under a renewed contract every Monday night at 8 o'clock on the "Our Town" program.

Appleby, a senior Music major, organized his band last quarter, featuring himself on the clarinet, and played at many of the college functions.

During the summer the band turned commercial and signed a thirteen-week contract under the sponsorship of the Meyenburg Milk company.

Kay Walton, junior Speech major, joined Appleby's band during the summer as vocalist and sings every Monday night on the program.

"Our Town", presented in the Little Theater at the San Jose Civic auditorium, features a different community each week, bringing special talent to participate on the program. Visitors are welcome to attend the broadcast.

Nygren Wins Navy Wings

Among the nineteen prospective navy fliers to complete their preliminary flight training last week at the Oakland Naval Reserve Training station were three former San Jose State college students.

Bernard "Bud" Nygren, leading ground gainer on the Spartan eleven last year; Charles Francom, and Dino Marati were the former Spartans.

They will be commissioned ensigns in the Naval Reserve when they have completed their advanced training at the Naval Flight Training center at Corpus Christi, Texas.

Band, Music, Yells On Hand For Rally

building of a bonfire for the pregame rally.

The price of the trip to Stockton will be $1.75 round trip. Included in the train will be a dancing car, which, according to Payne, will make for an enjoyable trip.

It is not yet known how long students may stay in Stockton before the train leaves, but Payne said that it may be possible to remain until after the dance.

The bonfire and rally for the COP game will be held Thursday evening, October 23, in the field behind Spartan Stadium. Four squads composed of sophomores, juniors, seniors and service organizations will have complete charge of building and guarding the fire and of staging of the rally.

In order to speed the task, the rally committee asks that anyone who knows of material for the fire or of trucks which may be used to transport it, to contact Chairman Payne.

Art Students Invited To Attend 'Rathole Party'

Art students are invited to a "Rat-hole party" in room A1 of the Art department, Thursday evening, at 7 o'clock. The three Art organizations — Smock and Tam, Artizans, and Delta Epsilon—will be hosts at the affair.

Feature of the evening will be a motion picture sponsored by Delta Epsilon. For the heavy-eaters, Smock and Tam, women's Art organization, plans to have sandwiches and cider.

Artizans, men's organization, will decorate room 1 as a barn, for which informal dress will be the accepted style.

A sign-up for the party is being carried on in classes and on the main bulletin board in the Art wing. Students are asked to sign up ahead of time to facilitate planning.

HAYLOFT HOP FEATURE OLD TIME DANCES

Square and round dances will be featured at the 6th annual Alpha Pi Omega Hayloft Hop, to be held Saturday, October 18, at Matasci's barn.

Prizes will be awarded for the best and most original costumes fitting for the "down on the farm" theme. There will be a yodeling and barnyard imitations contest open to both men and women.

Cider, in line with the harvest theme, will be served throughout the evening.

Bob Berry and his seven-piece orchestra are to furnish the music and entertainment for dancing from 9 to 1.

CO-OP COUNCIL ELECTS SORENSON TO PRESIDENCY

Leroy Sorenson of Spartan hall was elected president of the Co-operative House Council at a meeting of representatives of the five houses last Thursday.

Elected to the vice-presidency is Bill Seeley also of Spartan hall. Betty Woods of Mary Post was chosen to carry on the duties of secretary, and Helen York of Mary George will serve as treasurer.

Houses represented at the meeting were Spartan Hall, Mary George, Mary Post, Grace Hall, Eckert Hall, co-operative houses.

The council was formed last year to better coordinate the activities of co-ops on the San Jose State college campus.

Robinson Speaks Before Public Affairs Forum

Mr. Elmo Robinson of the college Psychology department will be guest speaker at a meeting of the Public Affairs Forum in the Student Center today at 12 o'clock.

The meeting is open to students, faculty, and friends. It is suggested that those attending bring their lunch, for the meeting will last for the duration of the noon hour.

NEWS BRIEFS

DR. BOTTS SPEAKS AT C. OF C. MEET

At a San Jose Chamber of Commerce luncheon meeting Friday, Dr. E. D. Botts of the college Science department expressed his views and ideas on the present European situation.

Dr. Botts toured the various countries of Europe three years ago. He has been at San Jose State since 1928 as a professor of chemistry.

REFERENCE TABLES ARRIVE FOR USE

The tables for the new library reference room arrived yesterday. They are something new in the way of tables as students can sit only on one side of them.

These tables are slanted downward so as to give the student greater ease at study. They were selected by the architect, William Manhart, to blend with the modern fixtures of the room.

UNION WOMEN ELECT OFFICERS

Student Union hostesses will meet at 12:30 today in the Union to elect officers.

Carol McDaniel, in charge of the unit, says additional women are needed, particularly for the 11 o'clock hour, to serve in the Union. Any other volunteers will be welcome.

All women who have signed up as prospective Student Union hostesses are asked to attend today's meeting, Miss McDaniel points out.

RUNNING PRESENTS STANFORD RECITAL

Joseph Running, who replaced William Erlendson last year as choirmaster and piano instructor, and who is now assistant university organist at Stanford university, was presented Sunday afternoon in an organ recital at Stanford Memorial Chapel.

The program included the Chorale-Prelude from "Valet Will Ich Dir Geben" by Guilman; Bach's Pastorale in F major; "Le Chant de Mai" by Jongen; a gavotte from Prokofiev's "Classical Symphony", and a Franck chorale in A minor.

Co-op Houses Plan Open House Sunday

Open House, an annual affair, will be held from 3 to 6 by the Women's co-operative houses, Sunday, October 19.

Women students, faculty, and the community are invited to attend to see how the girls work together to reduce living expenses, as well as create desirable social situations, according to Jean Douglass, manager of Grace hall.

Refreshments will be served to all.

The houses to be open to guests are: Mary George, 164 South Tenth; Mary Post, 438 South Ninth; Grace hall, 65 South Ninth.

Camp Leadership Suspends Activities

Dr. Robert D. Rhodes' Camp Leadership group has suspended activities until the spring quarter, it was announced today.

"In the three years the group has been organized, it has become evident that it is more practical to wait until spring before making any active plans," says Dr. Rhodes, Science faculty member.

Y.W. SECRETARY TO SPEAK AT CENTER

Miss Jean Thoits, YWCA secretary, is scheduled to speak to the Cosmopolitan club on "Living Japan" Thursday night at 7:30 in the Student Center.

Miss Thoits, who attended college here in '31 and '32, spent three years in Tokyo as a private tutor. She returned in September 1939, on one of the first blacked-out ships to run the German marine blockade in the Atlantic.

The usual social hour will follow the talk.

Radio Members Must Have S B Cards

All members, new or old, of the Radio Speaking society who do not have student body cards will be allowed to participate in activities of the club, publicity chairman Dean Paigis announced Friday.

Formation Planned By Marching Band

San Jose State college's 11-piece marching band is spending its afternoon practice sessions on the San Carlos turf in preparation for stunts to be put on at halftime for the Hardin-Simmons game Friday night.

Climax of the band's gyrations will be formation of the letters "H S" by the entire group. The "H" will then be changed to form a "J" for "San Jose".

CIRCULATION DESK IN NEW LIBRARY

The Circulation Desk has been moved to its permanent quarters in the new library, and is situated behind the main entrance of the building. Students looking for books, however, will go to the temporary desk in the old library until movement of all books and stacks is completed.

The desk has been built in the same modern styles as the rest of the building.
