NEWS OF THE COLLEGE

Public School Art Course Programmed For Next Quarter

Dr. M. E. Rieteld, head of the Art department, announced today a combined art course starting next quarter.

The course is especially suited for teachers taking General Elementary credentials. The course will be labeled Public School Art, and will give several phases of art that in the past have been taught in three quarters and took more time to complete. As it stands now this new combined course will be given at 1 to 4 daily, and will cover more territory than the present three-quarter course. Each quarter the same things will be taught, for which 8 units will be given.

These teachers will teach this combined Art Appreciation, Art Skills and so on: Miss Susan Byrne, Miss Estella Hoisholt and Mrs. Ruth Turner.

Extravaganza Cast: We will leave from the pool entrance today at 10. Be prompt. Check out a suit and have it with you. — C. Tucker.

GRACE MARIE McGRAW who is outgoing President of A. W. A., and Juniors will enjoy a farewell banquet at the Hotel Sabel tonight. Plans for a Homecoming for Juniors will be announced. Details to be published.

BULLETIN: JUNIORS!

Information to the juniors as issued by Tom Taylor Saturday runs as follows:

1. The signal announcing the seniors have sneaked will be the ringing of the Tower bell. Upon hearing this signal, all juniors going on the Sneak should report immediately to Fourth and San Carlos. Those who cars should lineup single file; those without transportation will state their numbers and transportation will be provided.

2. Students living out of town should move into town during Sneak Week, preferably near the campus, and where a phone is available.

4. If the signal that the seniors have sneaked comes before dawn, juniors must provide their own blankets and food. However, if the seniors leave at dawn or later, food will be provided by the seniors.

5. Juniors should expect a call at any time and upon receiving that call, move and move fast! Juniors must arrive at the final destination by 12 noon or they lose the sneak.

Sneakers: Tonight's seniors' baton of dehydrated vegetables to be carried is demonstrated by eight small wooden ships. One ship can carry one of three groups, rag and for the banquet. Those students who took first and second in Mr. Tucker's Methods class.

Sponsors of the fraternity is Miss Scotty, with Beverly Bevans, Helen Biddle, and Mary Tackett as the Student Affiliation Committee.
