Alumni Start Annual Drive

To help relieve the crisis of diminishing funds on the state college level, the San Jose State College Alumni Association is starting a new Achievement Fund Drive for 1964-65, with a yearly goal of $100,000.

In announcing the drive, SJS Alumni Association President Gerard J. Kettman, stated, "The need has never been so obvious and pressing. This is the real time for our alumni to take a significant step forward."

SJS President Robert D. Clark gave his full support to the drive. He emphasized the need for continued alumni, business and industry support of the college.

"Even though we're a state-supported college, many of our students still need financial assistance," commented President Clark. "Scholarships are among our greatest needs," he continued.

ADMINISTRATORS SUPPORT
College administrators and deans have been stating and re-stating this thought in giving their support to the Alumni Association's fund drive.

Among those who have put their support behind the drive is Donald R. Ryan, assistant to the dean of students and financial aids director, said, "People think there's no need because we're a public school."

Dr. James Brown, dean of the graduate division, pointed out that the lack of funds results in the fact that many fully qualified people are unable to enroll at SJS, despite the low fees.

SCHOLARSHIPS

Attainment of the $100,000 goal would mean more than $30,000 in scholarships, all to be administered by Ryan's office. Kettman stated that this "would more than double the existing amount available."

Another $30,000 would be used for research fellowships for graduate students, increasing the present funds sixfold. Fifteen thousand dollars would be used for a "college enrichment" program, earmarked for purchasing items that, though not strictly necessary for an education, would contribute immensely to the educational program.

Ryan pointed out that only 167 scholarships, averaging $125 each, were now available by the college to the 800 students who applied. He emphasized the fact that even though the cost of an education at SJS is relatively inexpensive, there are still many students who still are unable to afford the cost of a college education.

URGENT NEED

Dean Brown pointed out that urgent financial needs also exist in the graduate program. "There are very few scholarship grants. What's presently available doesn't begin to attract enough of the good people to come to graduate school here. We have 250 qualified applicants for assistance, and if we had the funds to help them, what a difference it would make."

Brown said that at present there are five fellowships earmarked solely for graduate students. When these are gone the graduate students must compete with the undergraduates for the few fellowships that are available.

Dr. Clark, who came to SJS from the University of Oregon, told how the alumni support was a big factor in that institution's growing endowment fund. He continued to repeat how badly the funds are needed at SJS.

"Every institution must have funds to get young people started. Available scholarships are one of the most important aspects of our colleges today," commented Dr. Clark.

The San Jose State College Alumni Association is taking the step in raising the badly needed funds.

Math Club Sponsors Dr. Niven

Dr. Ivan Niven, one of the nation's foremost number theorists, will speak to the SJS Mathematics Society on "Basic Results of Combinatorial Analysis," tomorrow, 4:20 p.m. in E132.

Co-sponsored by the Mathematics Department and the Math Society, Dr. Niven's talk will open the 1964-65 mathematics lecture series. The public is invited to attend.

Dr. Niven is currently on the University of Oregon faculty. He has also served on the faculty of the University of Illinois and Purdue University and has been a visiting lecturer at Stanford University.

A graduate of the University of British Columbia, Dr. Niven received his Ph.D. from the University of Chicago in 1938.

Dr. Niven has served on mathematics advisory panels of the Office of Naval Research and the National Science Foundation. A member of the American Mathematical Society, the Mathematical Association of America and the American Association for the Advancement of Science, he is also part-time editor of the American Mathematical Monthly and the Pacific Journal of Mathematics.

Dr. Niven has written five books and 35 articles in research journals. Some of his articles and books are on display in the science reading room of the library.

According to Jim Bellis, chairman of the Mathematical Society, Ivan Niven's name is almost legend among students of number theory.

This year's lecture series will be bigger and better than ever, according to Dr. Lester H. Lange, head of the Mathematics Department.

Models Sought: 'Lyke' Sign-up Scheduled Tues.

"Lyke," SJS campus feature magazine is looking for models.

Women interested in creative fashion modeling can sign up for possible participation tomorrow at 3:30 p.m. in J206. Portraits also will be taken at this time.

According to Nick Pavloff, "Lyke" photo editor, some modeling experience is preferable but not necessary.

Motorcade From S.F.

Demos On Campus Today

First appearance of major candidates in the 1964 election will bring Sen. Hubert Humphrey, Sen. Pierre Salinger, and Gov. Edmund G. (Pat) Brown to campus this morning in a 9 o'clock rally on Seventh Street.

The three prominent Democrats will arrive on campus via a motorcade from San Francisco, where the vice-presidential candidate attended a $100-a-plate fund raising dinner Saturday night.

The motorcade will turn off Bayshore onto First Street, turn left on W. San Carlos to Fourth St., thence to E. San Fernando, and then onto Seventh Street.

The candidates and governor will be greeted by an official delegation of 10 co-eds, designated as the Coeds for Lyndon Johnson and Hubert Humphrey. The girls, in LBJ cowboy hats and banners decorated with campaign buttons galore, will present the featured three with flowers.

Gov. Brown will introduce the two senators who will deliver campaign speeches.

On the platform with the distinguished trio will be Democratic candidates running in local elections.

After the hour-long rally, the party will leave for Berkeley for a noon appearance at the University of California.

Sen. Humphrey, first Democrat to become U.S. Senator from Minnesota, will depart for Cheyenne, Wyo. after his appearance on the university campus.

Sen. Salinger, former Presidential press secretary to President John F. Kennedy and President Johnson, was appointed to his present position in mid-summer after the death of Sen. Clair Engle.

Gov. Brown, serving his second term as head of the California government, has been district attorney of the City and County of San Francisco and the State of California.

CAMPAINING COEDS—Four of the group called Coeds for Lyndon Johnson and Hubert Humphrey corner Jerry Klein and hand him campaign literature. The coeds, (l. to r.) Helen Whaley, Joanne Minsky, Addie Adair, and Barbara Saunders, will be among the 10 ladies who will officially greet Sen. Hubert Humphrey, Sen. Pierre Salinger and Gov. Edmund G. (Pat) Brown on their campus campaign stop.

Spartacamp Positions Open; Interviews Begin Thursday

Would you like to help plan a weekend camp program? Interviews to fill eight student positions on this year's Spartacamp committee will be Thursday from 1-4 p.m. in the College Union. Application forms are now available at the College Union and must be turned in by 12 noon Thursday according to Eugene Archer, senior political science major and this year's camp director.

Spartacamp, also known as the "think" weekend is at the Asilomar Conference Grounds on the Monterey Peninsula during March. By the end of the first semester the committee will have selected a theme and decided upon the topic for discussion.

The students at Spartacamp will spend most of their time in small groups discussing current problems of either a political or social nature.

Last year more than 350 students and faculty members made the trip to Asilomar where the theme for the camp was "Directions." According to Miss Archer the campers exchanged views on the conflict and problems of choosing human goals.

In November about 50 more students will be selected as counselors. These students will then go through a training period where they will learn about the plans made by the committee.

Faculty advisers for the committee are Dr. Fauneil Rinn, assistant professor of political science; Dr. Billie Jensen, assistant professor of history; Dr. Mervyn Cadwallader, associate professor of sociology; and Dean Robert Martin, associate dean of students, counseling and guidance.

Any student is eligible to try out for a committee post and Miss Archer stressed that prior Spartacamp experience is not a prerequisite for committee membership.

Marshall Awards Deadline Oct. 22

Application deadline date for the Marshall Scholarships this year is Thursday, Oct. 22.

The Marshalls are given by the British Government and people in gratitude for Marshall Plan Aid. They are worth $2,240 a year, plus round trip travel. Candidates can be of either sex and can choose whatever university course they wish, if they win, provided that facilities exist.

At least three Marshalls are guaranteed for students from the western states.

Application forms may be obtained from office 269 in the Administration Building or from the British Consulate-General, 343 Sansome Street, San Francisco.

Appropriations for the renovation of Tower Hall have been augmented by the Public Works Board of California, Executive Dean C. Grant Burton announced Friday. A local firm will begin renovation in approximately 30 days.

The contract was awarded to Herwig of California in Campbell after the Public Works Board increased the renovation fund by $58,000.

Bidding $574,444 on Sept. 15, the firm's bid, although $58,000 over the estimated cost of renovation, was the lowest offered. All of Tower Hall except the Tower itself and Morris Dailey auditorium will be torn down. The tower and auditorium will be renovated.

Operations will begin approximately Nov. 1.

300 Students Hinder Police

A crowd of approximately 300 SJS students stoned a police car, pelted it with water balloons, and encouraged a student to flee when questioned by an officer early Friday evening. One student, Robert F. Weir, 21, 481 S. Fifth St., was arrested, but later released from custody.

The crowd was reportedly throwing rocks at an abandoned car when police officer James Hober arrived at the 11th and San Antonio streets' intersection shortly after 6 p.m.

When Hober started to investigate one student reportedly hit the police car with a rock.

The youth, later identified as Weir, denied throwing the rock at first. However, he later fled at the urgings from the crowd. After a short chase Weir was caught and arrested.

The crowd then became irritable and demanded his release, but to no avail. Officer Hober's night stick and car keys were then stolen, and, as he called for new keys, his car was bombed with water balloons.

More officers soon arrived and the crowd dispersed.

Socialist Candidate Airs Grievances

"The threat of nuclear war is produced by competition between the USSR and capitalist nations," stated Herb Steiner, Socialist Labor Party candidate for the 1962 California gubernatorial election.

Steiner was on campus Friday with a co-worker handing out party literature and speaking to students.

"We're here to educate students on the Socialist Labor Party and its objectives, and once they have the facts they can make up their own minds as to whether to accept or reject our views," Steiner said.

Steiner sees virtually no differences between Lyndon Johnson, Democratic presidential candidate, and his GOP counterpart, Senator Barry Goldwater.

"They're both evil," he commented.

MacQuarrie Hall To Hold Four Depts.

By this time next year, the staccato spattering of gunfire will replace the constant clamor of construction at MacQuarrie Hall, now being built on San Carlos Street.

The structure, begun nearly a year ago, is scheduled for completion in Fall, 1965, at a cost of $2,404,900, plus an additional $100,000 for equipment.

Four SJS departments will share its five stories: ROTC, AF-ROTC, Mathematics and Law Enforcement and Administration.

A gunnery range and armory are planned for the basement. The remaining floors will contain 24 classrooms and related auxiliary rooms and 32 two-men faculty offices.

Drilling and open areas are also planned.

The building is named after the late Dr. Thomas W. MacQuarrie, president of SJS for 25 years (from 1927 to 1952), under whose leadership the college grew from 2,124 to 5,936 students. Dr. MacQuarrie was instrumental in the expansion of non-teaching curricula. His administration was characterized by practical rather than theoretical thinking.

Thrust and Parry

Student Alarmed By Attack On 'List'

Editor:

For the past several days I have followed with regret the apparent injustice embodied in the decision of the University of California at Berkeley to ban political activity on campus, and the subsequent suspension of eight students who defied the ban, and felt relief that a less rigid atmosphere seems to prevail at San Jose State (a tentative conclusion based on three weeks' observation).

I was therefore more than slightly alarmed by an article appearing in the Spartan Daily of Friday, Oct. 2, which described the violent attack upon the Tower List by the head of the economics department, for though I have found some of the descriptions of faculty members contained in this publication to be extremely blunt, sarcastic, and disrespectful, and in at least one case in my personal experience, seemingly unfounded, I feel that to ban or censor this publication would be far more harmful to the broad purpose of college education than its unrestricted publication.

"Uncontrolled student evaluation of their professor's reputation... harms the professor's reputation and reflects on his professional capabilities," only when his capabilities are indeed below par, for an evaluation clearly refuted by the professor's conduct of his classes is quickly dismissed by the student either as spurious or erroneous. As for lowering the enrollment in a professor's classes, is not a smaller student-teacher ratio the ideal longed for by the truly dedicated instructor, but too seldom possible in a public institution? Furthermore, should not the serious student be allowed access to every possible means of preventing the waste of time and money which result from grossly incompetent or inferior instruction?

If the Tower List is to be censored, this censorship should proceed from the individual conscience of its authors, or from the group as a whole, rather than by any action on the administrative level.

Complaints Lodged About KSJS

Editor:

We would like to lodge a complaint about KSJS. All over campus there are signs asking students to listen to the so-called "Voice of San Jose State." The station isn't even on the air, yet these signs are still intact on bulletin boards on campus. If the station isn't on the air, then the signs should be removed.

Secondly, Dr. Clarence Flick told KSJS staff members last year that financial assistance this year would come from the state. This statement was made after Student Council refused to grant operating funds for the station again this year. Now the state hasn't granted the funds and the station consequently isn't on yet.

We would like to know when the station is going to go on the air and if it goes on the air what the operating hours will be. What next, Dr. Flick?

First Win, 20-14

Spartans Top MSC

By DAVE PAYNE

San Jose State scored a touchdown with nine seconds remaining to win its first game of the 1964 season at the expense of Montana State, 20-14, Saturday at Bozeman.

In the contest's final 2:58, after MSC scored a touchdown which tied the game, both teams played "you take the game, I don't want it."

SJS received MSC's kickoff and promptly gave the ball away on the next play when quarterback Ken Berry had his pass intercepted by Dave Miller. Thanks to Miller's slow running ability, Berry and Jim Cadile were able to overtake the MSC fullback on the SJS 24-yard line.

Following an incomplete pass, MSC went into a weird formation (SJS coach Bob Titchenal calls it "the fly") where the QB had the center and an end in front of him with the rest of the team shifting about 10 yards to the left.

Anyway, the play backfired when Bobcat halfback Dan Sundling fumbled the ball away to SJS. The Spartans ran three plays to no avail and voted to give the ball back to MSC on a punt.

Again, thanks to Sundling, the Spartans recovered a MSC bobbie. Dennis Parker recovered Sundling's fumbled punt on the MSC 27-yard line with 1:18 remaining. Berry then threaded the needle and completed four straight passes to Ed Titus, John Travis, Bill Peterson, and finally Bob Bonds for the final five yards and a touchdown.

Bonds was credited with the Spartans' first score when he intercepted a pass and rambled for 27 yards.

SJS tallied its second touchdown early in the fourth period when fullback Charlie Harraway raced around left end for five yards. The TD drive was for 69 yards in 14 plays.

MSC tallied its touchdowns in the third and fourth quarters on sustained drives.

There were 5,500 in attendance.

Spartan Booters Tie Air Force Falcons, 3-3

San Jose State's soccer team came from behind Saturday night to tie the Air Force Academy 3-3 at Spartan Stadium before 6,000 fans.

Nigerian Efiok Akpan kicked in the Spartans' tie-up goal with 16:02 remaining in the game, but neither team was able to break the deadlock.

San Jose threatened continually the rest of the period but was unable to kick the ball past the Falcon goalie.

The Air Force built up a 3-1 third quarter lead until Akpan, preceded by Lou Fraser's goal, tied up the game.

Hercules Mehelis, Al Korbus, Bob Salazar and Hap Sermot were singled out for their fine play by Spartan coach Julie Menendez.

'Substitution Change Beneficial'—Titch

Football coach, Bob Titchenal, commenting on the new substitution rule: "This is a much better rule because it allows a coach to substitute for an injury whereas we weren't able to do it before without using up a valuable time out. It will also give a coach a chance to use specialists and I think we'll see more kids playing. We will still encourage players to go both ways whenever possible."

Extended Research Contract Works on Army Vehicles

A research contract between the U.S. Army Tank-Automotive Center, Detroit Arsenal and the Civil engineering and applied mechanics department has been extended, it was announced recently.

Studies under the contract are directed toward improving procedures for designing suspension systems for Army vehicles.

Beginning with the award of an $18,000 contract in September, 1963, the project received an additional $67,500 last June.

The random, dynamic loads imposed upon suspension system components during rugged, cross-country travel, will be simulated in the laboratory with experimental equipment designed especially for this purpose by project personnel.

Actual components will be tested in experiments.

Currently working on the project are Dr. William Blythe, director; Dr. Theodore C. Zsuty, associate director; and David Yoshida, graduate research assistant.
