LEADERS HEAR PRESIDENT—Sixteen state college ASB presidents listen to SJS President Robert D. Clark (standing) Friday night. California State College Student President's Association (CSCSPA) heard President Clark characterize them as part of today's "concerned generation" of college students.

Dr. Dusel Dismisses SPU Query

Dr. William Dusel, SJS vice president, said yesterday that he has not received a directive from Chancellor Glenn Dumke or from anyone else in the state college system that applied in any way to the activities of political groups on campus.

Referring to a statement by Kim Maxwell, chairman of the Student Peace Union (SPU), Vice President Dusel said, "I know of no letter that mentioned anything about political groups or political activities on the state college campuses."

Maxwell said he understood that a memorandum had been sent from the Chancellor's office which stated that rules on the state college campuses which had not been enforced heretofore would now be enforced. Maxwell pointed out that he could only speculate as to whether or not such a memorandum, if it exists, would affect political activity.

Maxwell emphasized, however, that he had no reason to believe that the administration will be unfair to any political group at SJS. "In my stay at SJS," he said, "the administration has made no unnecessary attempt to restrict political activity and I don't think it has any intention of doing so now."

"My feeling comes as a result of discussions between many students and administrators that have been very rewarding and we hope future relationships will be as productive," Maxwell said.

College Community To Hold Open House for Parents

OFFICIAL GREETER—Eddy Electron of the Industrial Arts Department practices his welcoming greeting on Mr. and Mrs. Derwood Burbank, 1093 Westwood Drive, San Jose, in anticipation of Parents' Day Open House to be held Saturday. The robot will be one of many exhibits to acquaint parents with student work in various departments.

San Jose State opens its doors Saturday to welcome visiting parents to the college community.

Thirteen departments are scheduled for open house and many will have exhibits to acquaint parents with work in the various fields.

The meteorology branch of the Science Department will display weather facilities; Home Economics, Industrial Arts and Education Departments will provide refreshments for any weary way worn wanderers.

The Industrial Arts Building is the home of Eddy Electron, acting doorman at last year's event, who will officiate as greeter again this year for that department.

The Drama Department will expose back scenes of production—the backstage.

Occupational Therapy and Nursing Departments will be located in the Health Building. Health facilities and the nursing lab will be open.

A special exhibit will be given by the Art Department in the art gallery.

An on-campus display and open house at the airport will compose the Aeronautics Department contribution.

An edition of the Spartan Daily will be on hand Saturday. Included in this Daily will be a full schedule of the day's events and Parents' Day articles as part of the Journalism Department's open house.

The library and bookstore facilities will also hold open house.

The San Jose State room in the library, home of historical college documents, will be open to parents who wish to delve into this aspect of the college.

As part of the program, Stanley C. Benz, dean of students, will give a lecture for parents, to explain and inform on student personnel service, loans, counseling, testing, activities and remedial services.

Open house is scheduled between 9 a.m. and 12:30 p.m.

Dean Benz will begin his lecture at 10:30 a.m., place to be announced later.

Dr. Tromp To Lead Radiation Seminar

"The Effects of Radiation on Human Beings" will be the topic of a seminar this evening from 7 to 8 in E328. Dr. Solco W. Tromp, head of the Biometeorological Research Center, University of Leiden, the Netherlands, will lead the seminar.

Dr. Tromp is a guest of the Department of Meteorology and Physical Science. He will be on campus three days and is scheduled to deliver a speech at 10:30 a.m. tomorrow morning in Concert Hall. The speech is titled "The Sensitivity of the Human Body to Changes in Weather and Climate."

Another seminar will be led by Dr. Tromp tomorrow afternoon at 2:30 in E328 on biometeorology.

USSR Puts Three Men Into Space

The Soviet Union placed a three-man space ship in orbit yesterday, the official news agency Tass has announced.

The ship, carrying a pilot, a scientist and a doctor, was sent aloft by a powerful new rocket, Tass said.

Aboard were Col. Vladimir Komarov, Konstantine Feoktistov and Dr. Boris Yegorov. The craft is named Voskhod, meaning sunrise.

The orbit ranges from 255 miles to 110 miles above the earth, an official announcement said. There was no indication how long the space craft would remain aloft. Its size and weight were not released.

Tass said the first manned orbit by the Soviet Union since the summer of 1963 was designed to test the effects of weightlessness and other stresses on man on a long flight.

Tass said the craft was sent into orbit close to the route set down by the scientists. "Two-way radio communications are maintained," Tass said. "The ships crew report they withstood quite well the launch and transition to weightlessness. All three feel fine."

Construction Firm Begins Destruction Of Tower Vicinity

Operations to demolish Tower Hall with the exception of the Tower itself and Morris Dailey auditorium were begun yesterday by Herwig of California, a Campbell construction firm.

According to Robert Wynn, manager of the firm, the first step of the process will be to demolish the southwest corner of Tower Hall.

Next, workers will remove tile from the roof and salvage wooden columns and other inside fixtures. A temporary fence will then be erected at the southwest corner of the complex to guard the equipment entrance.

The leveling process will take approximately three months to complete, states Mr. Wynn.

Warden: 'My People Are Still at Bottom'

By AL MASON

"The 'liberals' in the United States have ridden on the backs of my people and my people are still at the bottom," exclaimed Negro attorney Donald Warden Sunday night before about 100 persons in Concert Hall.

Warden is the national chairman of the Afro-American Association, an international Negro "self-help" group, which Warden founded in 1962.

"You can't pass a law and give a man humanity," declared Warden as he denounced attempts by "liberal" politicians to use the Negro's problems for political advantage.

Warden claimed that what the American Negro needs most, the "civil rights" laws can't give him. "Images" and "traditions" said Warden are what the Negro needs most. "If you don't have a tradition you're not going to have confidence."

RUMFORD ACT

"The Rumford Act, even in terms of 'civil rights,' is not going to do anything," asserted Warden. He explained, "You may go to rent a house once a year, twice a year, or once every 10 years, but the mirror you see every day." Warden continually stressed his feeling that "self-pride" is more important than "civil rights" laws.

Warden's topic, "Does the Conservative Have a Role in Civil Rights?" was stressed during the first part of his speech. He defined "conservatism" for his audience, "it means you want to conserve something." Warden complained that the Negro had lost everything he had to conserve in his culture during the slavery period.

The Negro attorney briefly explained that the program of his Afro-American Association was to give the Negro something to conserve. "We're going to leave a legacy," he predicted.

SUCCESSFUL

Warden further predicted his organization (now two years old) "is going to be the largest movement in America among black people. The Afro-American Association is very successful."

Warden's speech was sponsored by Young Americans for Freedom, a national conservative youth organization.

Campus Groups Hold Law Session

All campus organizations are required to attend "an organizational meeting" in TH55 at 3:30 this afternoon, according to Robert A. Andersen, assistant dean of men and adviser, Student Activities Board.

The purpose of the meeting is to inform campus groups of the procedures and regulations of campus organizations.

Frank Bardsley is chairman of the Student Activities Board.

Frosh To Contend For Council Posts

Freshman Student Council elections will begin tomorrow morning.

Polls will be open from 8:30 a.m. until 7:30 p.m. tomorrow and Thursday. Booths will be set up in front of the cafeteria, bookstore, and between the men's gym and PER building.

The largest number of candidates in history will compete for the four freshman representative posts open on council. Nineteen names will be placed on the ballot.

Another Day, Another Daily

Editor's Note Typifies Daily Hassle

By ADRIENNE KENNEDY

It has come to the attention of a certain writer that some of the most interesting, educational, readable and entertaining copy has yet to reach the pages of the Spartan Daily.

Certainly if ever there were a time to rectify the situation, National Newspaper Week is it.

Last Friday when the greater percentage of Spartan Daily and, for that matter, SJS contingents were busy doing whatever such contingents do on Friday night, four diligent and dedicated members of the staff were "down at shop." (The "shop" is somewhat unaffectionate jargonese for Globe Printing Company, 1445 S. First St.)

One of the stalwarts of the "shop" crew was missing. He is our news editor. He has a Ford. He was participating in a sports car rally. He had not forgotten, he had not deserted us "down at shop." He had tucked a note in with the copy "just in case anything goes wrong."

The note is somewhat reminiscent of Shelley Berman and his staged "telephone calls." The contents refer to the course of action we were to follow if some of the front page stories failed to "break." On a half-sheet of copy paper the note was penciled as follows:

"IF KSJS DIES:

1. send Spartan Daily story to KSJS position

2. insert Della-Maggiore story where SD was (ROTC)

"IF 7TH STREET DIES:

1. send KSJS to 7th Street

2. send SD to KSJS

3. insert Della-Maggiore story where SD was (ROTC)

"IF BOTH DIE:

1. put SD where 7th Street is

2. insert Della-Maggiore and Nozaki feature wherever possible."

This is the story behind the story, behind the printed pages of the Spartan Daily. It takes place every weekday night. Shop assignment is a vital part of every issue, involving a rotating crew of staff members.

Our job is never really done until the pages are locked up and the last proof is pulled. That could be as early as 10:30 p.m. or as late as 1 or 2 a.m.

Then we go home. Tomorrow is another day, another Daily.

DON'T PUT ME ON

By TOM POWELL

During this period of national deliberation, college students seem to take a closer look at politics, social disorder and international relations.

As we all grasp for understanding, the terms "liberal" and "conservative" get tossed about with quite some ease.

At last, after considerable thought, I have decided to take a stand and announce what my label shall be. I fully realize the consequences and expect to be attacked from all sides.

Friends, I am a preservative.

But halt a moment before throwing eggs. Let me define my label. (Doesn't everybody try these days?)

A conservative is a person who, very simply, wishes to conserve something. He may want to conserve a way of life, government or religion.

But the word "conserve" is rarely used in today's English. The word "preserve" is taking its place.

So therefore, in an ever-expanding attempt to start something new, I have labeled myself a "preservative."

Now, can you imagine how I will be rejected on all fronts of political activity?

They won't let me in the Young Democrats Club because my label sounds too much like "conservative."

I won't be allowed in the Young Republicans Club because they don't know exactly what I stand for and I may be a Democrat spy.

All the campus groups with causes to pursue will reject me as a fanatic simply because they don't know what I stand for.

But if the "preservatives" grow, we shall be the all-American group.

These are the bylaws of a "Preservative":

(1) Hate communism, (2) Love liberty, (3) Quit quibbling about whether one is a liberal or conservative and pitch in and do something to push back communism.

I would rather deal with humorous subjects. But it makes me sad to see patriotism sink in a mire of semantics.

"THE END"

Every movie has a stopping place labelled "THE END." So also does the real world, for God has purposed to bring the present age to a conclusion at some future date when men will cease altogether to heed His call to be reconciled to Him. This present age is marked by increasing deterioration of the world, by wars and rumors of war, earthquakes and famines, and by apostasy within the Christian faith. (Matthew 24:6-14).

God is not out to establish peace on earth during this present age, but to call out a people for Himself. Indeed the predicted end of the present age is the most terrible death and destruction the world has ever known. (Revelation 6:20). While no one knows when the present age will end, the constant message of the New Testament is that Jesus Christ will return in power and strength to establish a kingdom on earth. During these last days before "THE END," the Gospel of Jesus Christ continues to be spread around the world with the good news of salvation through faith in Christ. Men and women and children around the world are today urged to be joined to Jesus Christ before the last reel of life in the present age begins, for terrible days lie ahead for those who remain living in independence of God our Savior.

"Note this first: in the last days there will come men who scoff at religion and live self-indulgent lives, and they will say, 'Where is the promise of his coming? Our fathers have been laid to their rest, but still everything continues exactly as it has always been since the world began.'"

"In taking this view they lose sight of the fact that there were heavens and earth long ago, created by God's word out of water and with water; and by water that first world was destroyed, the water of the deluge. And the present heavens and earth, again by God's word, have been kept in store for burning; they are being reserved until the day of judgment when the godless will be destroyed.

"And here is one point, my friends, which you must not lose sight of: with the Lord one day is like a thousand years and a thousand years like one day. It is not that the Lord is slow in fulfilling his promise, as some suppose, but that He is very patient with you, because it is not His will for any to be lost, but for all to come to repentance.

"But the Day of the Lord will come; it will come, unexpected as a thief. On that day the heavens will disappear with a great rushing sound, the elements will disintegrate in flames, and the earth with all that is in it will be laid bare.

"Since the whole universe is to break up in this way, think what sort of people you ought to be, what devout and dedicated lives you should live! Look eagerly for the coming of the Day of God and work to hasten it on; that day will set the heavens ablaze until they fall apart, and will melt the elements in flames. But we have His promise, and look forward to new heavens and a new earth, the home of justice.

"With this to look forward to, do your utmost to be found at peace with Him, unblemished and above reproach in His sight. . . . Take care not to let unprincipled men seduce you with their errors; do not lose your own safe foothold. But grow in the grace and in the knowledge of our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ. To Him be glory now and for all eternity!" (2 Peter 3:2-18 NE).

Are you prepared for "THE END"? Are you reconciled to God through Jesus Christ as Lord? Take the time today, before it is too late, to receive Jesus Christ into your heart and life.

Present System For Reg 'Adequate'

Editor:

As an ex-Humanities student whose last name begins with "B," I wish to answer a recent letter in Thrust and Parry (8 Oct.).

Methods for registration, it has long been noted, usually seem unsatisfactory to those involved. But I feel that the present system at State is a good one. First, priority to seniors is necessary because they, hopefully, should be graduated at the end of the year. Juniors have another year—at least—to make up for classes they might be unable to take this year.

We have adequate pre-registration. The semesterly rotation of registration time is fair. And unlike mail-in IBM card registration, we have some choice of class time, instructor, and on-the-spot program changes. What worse a fate is there than being assigned to a class with a professor you can't stand (or vice versa), that meets at an hour when you're not awake?

Academic classes usually are uncrowded at hours which interfere with sleep, beer-busts, surfing, and the like. In three years I have gotten EVERY class that I have wanted by planning to go to school at such "off-hours."

Finally, this is not a private school which has the prerogative to hire five new art profs if art appreciation suddenly becomes popular, while dismissing two extra sociology profs. So there will not always be enough seats in given classes.

If we don't like this system, be we locals or foreigners, there are other schools that we can attend.

Soft Concealments

Woodrow Wilson said to the Senate in 1917: "I am seeking only to face realities and to face them without soft concealments."

The reality we must face in 1964 is to beware of the soft concealments of political oratory.

The reality which the makers of our Constitution faced was the peril of centralized government. The soft concealments now are the arguments that all our problems and anxieties can be eliminated by Federal laws and the outpouring of Federal money.

The reality is the need for a sound dollar at home and abroad. The soft concealment is that the laws of economics are different than they were in the past and that a "little" inflation is a wholesome necessity.

The reality is that we are losing a struggle with Communism all over the periphery of the free world. The soft concealment is that there can be such a thing as neutrality in this struggle.

The reality is our loss of respect on every continent. The soft concealment is that our American money can buy friends.

The reality is the necessity that we look to the strengthening of the moral fiber of our people. The soft concealment is that an education, a job, a habitation and perfect security can be given by any government.

With strong leadership, our nation can preserve us from illusion and concealment. To face reality is to preserve our liberty. The time is November and the place is the polling booth. How will you vote for reality or soft concealments?

Murphy's Time Best in U.S.

Harriers Win at Sacramento

The San Jose State cross-country team, in what was supposed to be a rebuilding year, may achieve the foremost performance in Spartan cross-country history. This was evidenced Saturday at the Sacramento Invitational where the Spartans won by the largest margin in the meet's history.

The Spartans' low score of 30 was followed by second place Stanford with 54 points. Sacramento State finished third in the 10-team meet with 97 points.

Danny Murphy's winning time of 18.08 is the fastest cross-country time in the U.S. this year. Murphy bettered former SJS All-American and Olympic team member Jeff Fishback's meet record by three seconds, officially, but actually by a full minute because the course was one-tenth of a mile farther.

Gene Gurule, another former SJS All-American, competed for the Santa Clara Valley Youth Village and finished second. Gurule was instrumental in pushing Murphy on to his record time.

Tom Tuitt, who ran the most outstanding race of his Spartan career, finished third in 18.39. Tuitt and Stanford All-American Harry McCalla jockeyed for position until the final 600 yards when Tuitt pulled away.

All seven Spartan runners finished in the first 25 of the 70-man field. In addition to Murphy and Tuitt, the Spartan places and times were Phil Darnall, 6th, 18.58; Dave Lower, 8th, 19.07; Howard Thew, 12th, 19.16; Louie Davidson, 21st, 19.44; and Joe Neff, 22nd, 19.45.

The Spartababes, although performing without Art Bernhard and Walt Channels, won the freshman division and finished third in the combined freshman-junior college standings.

George Weed, the Spartababes' most outstanding performer this season, held a comfortable lead 100 yards from the finish line. A negligent official directed him to the wrong trail, however, and Weed missed first place by a stride.

Spartan Booters Lose

USE's Dons knocked San Jose State's unbeaten soccer team out of first place Saturday, blitzing the Spartans 6-1 in San Francisco.

The loss by the Spartans (1-1) coupled with Stanford's defeat to California vaulted USE (2-1) into a first place tie with Cal (2-1) in the Northern California Intercollegiate League.

Halfback Tom Zinter gave San Jose a short-lived 1-0 lead early in the first quarter when he kicked a goal in from the left side.

But the Dons tied it up 1-1 minutes later on a goal by all-leaguer Joe Martinez. They shot ahead 3-1 before the half and were never headed.

After a questionable penalty kick was awarded USE and converted for a goal in the third quarter, the Dons put the game on ice scoring two more goals.

"It broke our backs," said dejected Spartan coach Julie Menendez, referring to the penalty kick USE converted. "We might have come back if they hadn't scored," lamented Menendez.

"We didn't play a real good game," but added, "USE's the best team in the league."

The loss of veteran wingman Lou Fraser, out with a knee injury, seemed to keep San Jose's offensive attack from clicking.

The Dons kept SJS scorers Eflok Akpan and Al Korbus bottled up throughout the game, while pressuring the Spartan goal continuously.

San Jose's JV's clobbered San Francisco, 8-0, in a preliminary game. Carlos Rodriguez, with three goals, and Bob Davis, with two, paced the Spartan win.

THE MCINTYRE-GOLDWATER AXIS
A RAMPARTS editorial.

CARDINAL MCINTYRE

RAMPARTS Magazine Editorial Board
Editor-in-Chief: Edward M. Keating.
Executive Editor: Warren Hinckle.
Associate Editors: Robert McAfee Brown, Leslie Fiedler, Wallace Fowle, Maxwell Geismar, John Howard Griffin, Louis Lomax, Martin Turnell.

The Catholic Church and the
JOHN BIRCH SOCIETY
by John Cogley.

One of the penetrating reports in RAMPARTS' explosive symposium on a subject Catholics don't care to talk about outloud.

RAMPARTS

The Catholic Journal of Independent Opinion

Fiercely independent, RAMPARTS speaks out unequivocally on the issues of the day—political, literary, social, religious. We take sides. And name names. Our contributors are Jews, Protestants, Catholics, Agnostics—or what have you. Our readers are just as catholic. The only faith we all share is a passionate devotion to free, responsible discourse. We at RAMPARTS are committed to our times and our society as Catholics and citizens. We don't see any conflict in this. Maybe that's why we've been the center of controversy since our first issue.

Franklin D. Lewis

ANDREW WYETH, an Appreciation by Paul Horgan

A loving and perceptive scrutiny of the sources of this American original by the Pulitzer-prize-winning novelist.

OTHER RECENT RAMPARTS CONTRIBUTORS: Conrad Aiken, Allen Tate, Brother Antoninus, Terence Prittie, Karl Shapiro, Peter Viereck, Louis Kronenberger, John Berryman, St. John-Stevan, Leslie Fiedler, Wallace Fowle.

ARTICLES: Faulkner on Race; The Baron Corvo Legend; The Case for Contraband; Catholics and the Radical Right; The Jew as Mythic American; Jesuit Education—a layman's view; Harlem Diary; Sayonara, Ian Fleming.

Lots of labs, lectures, leisure—these slacks still stay pressed!
Tailored in 50% Dacron polyester-50% Orlon acrylic.

THEY'RE NEW "DACRON"™—"ORLON"™! New, Ultramatic slacks by Haggar! Even in the rain, they never lose that knife-edge crease... always stay in great shape! They won't bag at the knees... wrinkle behind the knees, at the waist or other points of stress. Wash or dry clean them... they're beautiful either way. And wear? We wonder if it's possible to wear them out. And Haggar Slacks just fit better... naturally. 10.95

Applications Available For State Scholarships

Applications are now available at the Dean of Students Office, ADM269, for the 1965-66 California State Scholarship competition, according to Donald R. Ryan, assistant to the dean of students.

Final applications must be submitted to the California State

Scholarship Commission by Jan. 8, 1965. Applicants, according to Ryan, must take the Scholastic Aptitude Test of the College Entrance Examination Board of Saturday, Nov. 7.

The maximum amount of state scholarships at independent colleges is $1,500 per year. The actual amount is determined by formula and by a student's need of financial assistance but is never greater than tuition and fees, Ryan said.
