Gridders May Encounter Mud At Puget Sound

By TOM ROWEN
Spartan Daily Sports Editor

Fresh from a 19-12 victory over the Hardin-Simmons Cowboys, the Spartan football team will try for their third consecutive victory tomorrow afternoon at Tacoma, Wash., when they play College of Puget Sound. Kickoff time is 2 p.m.

San Jose left yesterday afternoon and will arrive late today in the northwestern city. Coach Bill Hubbard may send his charges through a light workout tonight on the Tacoma field.

The Loggers won their last game by defeating British Columbia, 14-0. Puget Sound's only defeat of the current season was by University of Idaho. The Vandals knocked over the Loggers, 27-7, but the Tacoma eleven held Coach Dixie Howell's Pacific Coast Conference club to one score in the first half.

The Spartans will be minus the services of Billy Parton, fast stepping scooter back, who was left behind because of an arm injury. Hal Phillips, Fort Worth, Texas, scat back, replaced the Torrance lad on the traveling list late Wednesday night.

Logger Coach Frank Patrick has 24 returning lettermen from last year's Puget Sound team. Warren Wood, hard-crashing fullback, spearheads the Logger attack. Other backfield stars include Tom Ruffin, veteran right halfback, and Jock Spencer, three year letterman, at left half. Harry Mansfield, ace Logger passer, will be missing for the game as he broke his arm in the British Columbia game.

The backfield probably will consist of Jim Jackson, quarterback; Babe Nomura, left half; Billy Elam, right half; and either Pete Denevi or Jack Donaldson at fullback. Nomura replaces Parton in the starting left halfback role. Behind this opening backfield, the Spartan head man has Bill Perry, Chuck Hughes, Harry Russell, Marv Johnson, Gene Barbier, and Steve O'Meara. Elam will act as game captain.

According to latest reports from the northwest, Puget Sound has a strong line. The Logger forwards are led by Jimmy Rice, Ralph Rowe, Dick Hermen, and Bob Morrison. Rice is a guard who is Puget Sound's choice for Little All-American honors this year. The last three named are all sophomore tackles who were Logger iron men last season.

The Spartans may be at a disadvantage with their T-formation because of weather conditions in the northwest. The game will be played on a cinder field which will make the pigskin slippery in case of wet weather. Patrick's eleven runs plays from single wing and double wingback formations.

CADY RELEASED BY HOSPITAL

Clifford Cady Jr., 21, sophomore pre-engineering student, has been released from O'Connor Hospital, following emergency treatment for scalp lacerations and other minor injuries received in an automobile accident Wednesday morning.

Cady was riding a motorcycle tandem with Henry Daggett, 24, when it collided with an auto at Bascom Ave. and Stevens Creek Road. The car was driven by Grant A. Thorsen, 42, 195 Rosa St.

Katen's Ambulance took Cady to the hospital, where attendants yesterday said x-rays had been taken to determine the full extent of injuries.

JUSTICES PLAN FEED

The Student Court will hold a barbecue at the home of Jocelyn Capp, Senior Justice, next Tuesday evening.

At the regular court meeting yesterday afternoon in the Associated Student Body office in the Student Union, the court selected Shirley Anthony as court clerk for the coming year and Carol Baumgartner as assistant clerk.

There is a vacancy on the court, and it is open to any senior male who submits his application to the Business office before Monday noon.

There were no cases on the court docket, but several sections of the Student Body constitution were read aloud and discussed by the four justices present.

Included in the sections of the constitution read were Section VII, Section 1, Clause 3, which states that the court has the power to interpret the constitution, and also that they had the power to reverse the decisions of student body officers, or groups of officers.

John Keith Pope, Chief Justice, also would like student organizations to remember that they have until November 1 to submit to the court lists of names and student body card numbers of all members.

"No student may belong to any campus organization, or use any student body equipment, unless said student is a member of the student body and possesses his card," states Pope.

The court also plans to attend Monday night's Student Council meeting as a group. One of the stipulations of the court's duties is to have a member of the court present at all council meetings.

AIR MEET HAS LOCAL ENTRIES

San Jose State college will be represented in the coming Pacific Coast Inter-Collegiate Air Meet by Alpha Eta Rho, Spartan chapter of the national aviation fraternity.

The meet will take place at the Livermore Naval Air Station on November of this year, and fourteen western colleges, including California, UCLA, Stanford, San Diego State, Idaho, and others, will take part in the affair.

Plans for the meet call for six major events to take place. Chief among these are: spot landing, dive bombing, landing over a barrier, and cutting a paper tape.

The meet will be open to the public, and the starting is scheduled for 10:30 in the morning. The following Spartan airmen plan to enter: Art Bailey, Larry Broussel, Norman Doyle, Marvin Edner, Marc Guerra, Harry Hofman, Bill Klinker, Tom Leonard, Mel Stickney, and Francis Wildman. Other entrants will be added to the list within the next few days.

PLAY OPENS TONIGHT; 'FUN' THEME

"The Guardsman," a laugh-provoking comedy by Ferenc Molnar, opens its nine-night run tonight at 8:15 in the college's new Studio Theater.

Six members of the college's Speech and Drama faculty will enact the hilarious comedy that initiates the new theater, a rebuilt classroom seating 60 persons.

The play revolves around the Actor, played by James H. Clancy, who feels that his wife, the Actress, is growing tired of him. Elizabeth Loeffler portrays the role of the Actress. To test the love of the Actress, Clancy dons the disguise of a Russian Guardsman. John R. Kerr, the Critic, is Clancy's confidant in his scheme.

The play ends with the question of whether the Actress knew the Russian Guardsman was her husband. That is a question left for the audience to decide. Comedy touches are provided by Wallace Murray as the Bill Collector, Ruth McKenzie as Mama, and Marie B. Carr as Liesl, an untidy maid.

Dr. Hugh W. Gillis, department head, is directing the all-faculty cast, and Harrison B. McCreath is technical director on the show.

According to Miss Helen Mineta, Speech department secretary, there are a few tickets left. These may be purchased for 30 cents in the new Speech office, room 57.

X-RAY LAUDED FOR TB WORK

"Probably the greatest protection the Health department offers to the student body is the least appreciated," states Miss Margaret Twombly, head of the department. She speaks of the x-ray service which last school year took 4129 x-rays, uncovering six active cases of tuberculosis, and 27 arrested cases which were at one time active tuberculars.

This may seem to be a small percentage to the casual reader, but taking into consideration that TB can be spread so rapidly and in so many ways, and can be ripping its way into your lungs for two or three years without any symptoms being felt, the percentages take a big rise.

Miss Twombly commends the Santa Clara County Tuberculosis association photo-roentgenographic x-ray mobile unit for the work they have done in connection with San Jose State college. This unit drives to the college doors to x-ray all entering students. All questionable cases are re-examined with the college Health department machine operated by Miss Twombly.

Although it only takes one active case to create a danger, the health head asserted, there has been a drop since the 1945-46 school year when ten active cases were detected in the college.

Correction

Signup for Radio Guild tryouts will be held in room 165C all day Wednesday, the Speech department announces.

The Spartan Daily incorrectly reported in Thursday's edition that the signups were to be in room 159C, Monday.

INVITATION REITERATED

President Pat Walsh has extended another invitation to members of the class of 1949 to attend the junior class party tonight in the Student Union from 8 until 11 o'clock.

The party will be concluded with a dance after a short business meeting and games. Spin-the-bottle has been suggested.

Class members may wear school clothes and should be prepared to discuss plans for student body and after-game dances sponsored by this organization. Bruce McNeil, chairman, emphasized yesterday, "Committee members meet this afternoon in the Student Union at 3:30 to help with decorations."

OPEN SWIM FRIDAY

C. L. Walker and Mary Hooton, swimming instructors, have announced recreational swimming will be available for faculty and students each Friday from 1 to 3:30 p.m. Those desiring to participate must furnish their own caps.

STUDENT 'Y' ENDS DRIVE

Malcolm Carpenter reported yesterday the Student "Y" is engrossed in a full-scale membership drive which will end at 5 p.m. today.

Carpenter explained, "This does not mean students may not join our group after today. We shall be busy aiding the Community Chest in San Jose and redecorating our new offices at 220 So. 7th street, but new members are always welcome and accepted."

Besides sponsoring organized summer camps for students enrolled in this college, the Student "Y" is busy with frosh activities, reunions, retreats, informal discussions, speakers, dancing, fellowship suppers, and student-faculty groups.

Bruce McNeil and Al Grass are active in this organization and will be glad to answer any questions about the Student "Y."

LYCURGUS NAMES STAFF HEADS

Marian Ellis, senior English major, and Leland Stronach, junior art major, have been appointed associate editors of Lycurgus, campus magazine. Editor Glenna McQuiston announced today.

Also working with Miss McQuiston will be Bill Wagner, art editor; Michael Overhulse, humor editor; Mary Price, fashion editor; Mack Howard, photography editor; Bob McFadden, layout editor; and Sal Millan, publicity director.

Al Campbell, business manager of the publication, has announced his staff as follows: Bob Pearson, advertising manager; Jim Black, assistant advertising manager; Pat O'Brien and Fred Jobs, associate business managers. Subsidiary staffs will be announced later.

All students interested in gaining experience on a magazine staff are urged to contact Miss

A-PHI-O RETURNS BOOKS

Dale LaMar, Alpha Phi Omega book exchange chairman, stated that students may secure their books or money from the Student Book Exchange in the Student Union from 9 a.m. until 5 p.m. today.

LaMar added, "This service to the students will be closed after today and will reopen at the beginning of the winter quarter. Stubs must be presented to members at the exchange."

A total number of 344 volumes were sold during the seven days the exchange remained open. Alpha Phi Omega reorganized the service last year to facilitate selling and buying books at a reasonable cost to students.

SCENE SET FOR BETA CUDDLE

"Snuffy" Harris announced yesterday hors d'oeuvres will be served at the "Beta Cuddle" dance tomorrow night in the patio of the Hotel St. Claire.

The dance will be held in the Empire Room and will feature the orchestra of Kenny Taix. Many bids have been purchased and students are urged to buy theirs today at the booth in the outer quad.

This eighth annual dance is presented by Beta Chi Sigma fraternity and is only one of the many functions this organization sponsors and takes part in during the school year.

Aiding Harris with dance preparations are Dick McGlynn and Spencer Snapp. Bids are $2.40, tax included, and may be bought at the door Saturday evening. The dress is "dressy sport."

DEADLINE

Deadline for all announcements in the Spartan Daily is 1:30 p.m. the day before publication.

Mimeographed forms, upon which all announcements must be submitted, may be obtained in the Publications office, room 17.

McQuiston, according to Publicity Director Sal Millan. Assistance is still needed in all types of work.

The magazine, a quarterly publication, is scheduled to come out the first week in December, according to Miss McQuiston. It is to be comprised of features designed to enlighten and entertain the student body on the many phases of campus life. The December publication will be the fifth issue.

Student authors may submit articles to Leland Stronach in room 17. All kinds of articles are desired: feature, humorous, sports, news-feature, biographical features, short-story features.

People interested in working on humor for the magazine may contact Michael Overhulse in room 17, says Miss McQuiston. Artists should see Bill Wagner.

Suggestions, comments, or ideas should be addressed to the editor and left in the Publications office.

DO UNTO OTHERS—

Before each "big game" between College of the Pacific and San Jose State college, spirit runs high, and both campuses receive new coats of the wrong color paint and new lawn ornaments such as burnt letters; for instance the "P" in the rear quad.

In an effort to remedy this situation, the Student Council has decided to bill COP for any damages that may occur in the future. They also have asked that the Student Council at COP retaliate by billing San Jose State college for any damage inflicted on its campus by Spartans in a zealous mood.

Students on Washington Square have been wanting to be treated as adults for a long time. The new Student Council is putting them on an adult plane and is expecting them to behave as adults.

The way to show bountiful spirit is to get out to the football games in unprecedented numbers, then proceed to yell until the light poles vibrate at Spartan Stadium.

Smearing paint on sidewalks in Stockton, and burning letters into lawns does nothing but build resentment. The Student Council has opened the way for inter-collegiate rooter competition on the level of adults.

It is up to you, Spartans, to back them up.

HAVE YOU HEARD?

By BEA DOOLEY

Mark Alan is the new addition to the Bob Truitt family. Young Mark, tipping the scales at 7 lbs. 15 oz., was born in Artesia on October 1.

Truitt is a senior police major who recently was sworn in as a deputy sheriff under Sheriff Howard F. Hornbuckle. He serves as bailiff to Superior Judge M. G. Del Mutolo.

Mr. Weaver Meadows, commerce instructor, welcomed a new boy into his home last month with the birth of Grady M. Meadows who weighed 8 lbs. and 5 oz.

Grady was born at O'Connor hospital. Mrs. Meadows is a former airline stewardess. Grady has an older sister, Pat, aged 2.

A box of chocolates at the first Zeta Chi sorority meeting of the quarter announced the engagement of Barbara Patterson, junior physical education major from Sacramento to Jim Loughridge also of Sacramento.

Jim is a student at Davis college.

There are no definite plans for the wedding.

Another Spartan engagement is that of Evelyn Stalvey of Valdosta, Ga., to Ralph Smith, junior industrial arts major, at San Jose State.

Ralph is affiliated with Alpha Phi Omega.

Summer weddings among the faculty included that of Miss Eve Nathanson, ceramics instructor, who was married to John A. Carey, a student in the Industrial Arts department, in East Greenwich, R. I. on July 9.

The couple will reside in Mountain View. Mrs. Carey has been at San Jose State college since 1946.

The Stanford Memorial chapel was the setting for the September wedding of Dr. Gertrude Witherspoon, associate professor of chemistry, and Earle Cavins of San Francisco.

Dr. Cavins, who has been at San Jose State college since 1924, is one of the acting heads of the Science department while Dr. P. Victor Peterson is on leave.

The couple plans to live in San Jose. Mr. Cavins is in business in San Francisco.

Miss Dolores Bassi, commerce instructor, became the bride of Al Chasuk, a student at Santa Clara university, in an August wedding at San Luis Obispo.

Mrs. Chasuk has been an instructor here for two years.

The couple will make its home in San Jose.

Peggy Carter, sophomore, and Jerry Schlosser are two San Jose State college students who have announced their betrothal recently. Peggy is a member of Allenian sorority and Jerry's fraternal affiliation is Beta Chi Sigma.

The couple plans a June wedding.

WOMEN VETS

Arnacoma, women veterans' on campus organization, will hold its first meeting of the year Monday, 7 p.m., at 92 North Fifth St., according to Past-president Rhoda "Andy" Anderson.

Arnacoma was first formed in 1945 by women returning to college after service in the armed forces. Its name is derived from the first two letters of arm, navy, coast guard, and marines.

"All women veterans are eligible to join," said Miss Anderson, "and all are invited to this first meeting. Refreshments will be served."

SGO Football Dance

John Daegling is in charge of Sigma Gamma Omega's ninth annual Football Dance to be held at the Civic auditorium Saturday, October 18, from 9 to 1.

This dance will feature the "Music in the Modern Mood" of Marilyn Merle and her all-girl orchestra. The affair will be dressy sport and according to Daegling the varsity football squad will be present as special guests.

THRUST and PARRY

TAKE YOUR CHOICE

Thrust and Parry:

Coffee (with cream) drinkers patronizing the coop must have their cream added behind the counter or the cup of java price must rise to a new high of seven cents. (Mrs. Mary E. Simon, director of the coop, gave this information to your Spartan Daily reporter in an interview regarding the Thrust and Parry article "We Want Cream" in Tuesday's Spartan Daily.)

There is no profit in selling coffee at five cents, and keeping the cream off the counter saves only enough to keep the coffee sales from causing a deficit. Cream prices have gone up considerably lately.

Other cafes and restaurants have solved the problem of increased cream and coffee prices by charging seven or ten cents, something which has hitherto been regarded as the easiest way to start an on-campus rebellion of Spartans.

Black coffee drinkers needn't worry about a future rise in price, but those who like cream in their cups will have to be content with watching the waitress put it in, or they will have to pay the 2 cents extra.

Mrs. Mary E. Simon,
Director, Spartan Fountain

WHO DONE IT?

Thrust and Parry:

Concerning the letter from the student council, signed by "Doc," it would seem that the effort is a sincere and commendable one. That of better inter school relations and continued sports competition.

However, the opening sentence directly accuses COP of something that it would be most difficult, if not impossible, to prove. Later in the paragraph, the council hedges, and says "perhaps" the disfigurement was by COP students. "Either it was or it wasn't. I think the council made a dangerous conclusion from the scanty evidence and reasoning presented.

"Naturally," the letter continues, "if such actions are perpetrated by San Jose State college students on the grounds of COP, we shall expect to be treated in a like manner."

That is, billed for damages. What then, if a third party, either through exuberance or malice, chooses to splash COP? Through the flimsiest of judgment we assumed that COP painted us, and we warned them we'd charge for repairs. They have an equal right of retaliation. Further, the council is bound by its letter to pay promptly damages sustained, while the culprit need not necessarily even be connected with this school.

Again, the spirit in which the letter was sent, was a fine one, but its glittering generalities may yet reflect and blind us.

STUDENT BODY PROVIDES FUND FOR SPECIAL INJURIES

By DAVE LEONARD

(This is the last of three articles on the San Jose State college health service as released by the health department.)

Some types of injury cannot be cared for by the regular college health service staff. A special injury fund has been provided by the student body to assist students in the expense of necessary, outside medical care of injuries. It applies to medical fees, the cost of X-rays and hospitalization.

Regulations for administering this injury service have been set by the Student Council as follows:

Only registered students carrying six or more units are eligible. The student must have a student body card. The injury must have been reported at the Health office within 48 hours of its occurrence.

The necessity for outside care must have been approved by a college physician or by the head of the Health department or, in the case of off-campus trips, by the faculty member in charge.

Reimbursement must be approved by the Health cottage board. The student whose case is approved for aid from this fund, will be reimbursed for no more than one-half of the receipted bill.

In no case will reimbursement be made for a sum greater than $200.

ANIMALS BIG ATTRACTION FOR 640 STATE STUDENTS

Animal life around the Science department will undergo a lot of scrutiny this quarter, if the present enrollment in Biology 20, Native California Animals, is any indication.

According to Dr. G. A. McCallum and Dr. Robert Rhodes, some 640 students have signed up for the course. Dr. McCallum said this represents about nine per cent of the total student body. The pre war course enrollment was usually about four percent, McCallum added.

Dr. Rhodes stated that it has been necessary to break the group down into three lecture and 21 laboratory sections. Miss Jan Hagerty, Mrs. Shirley Buschke and Rocci Pisano, along with Dr. Rhodes and Dr. McCallum, are lab instructors for the course.

Neither Dr. Rhodes or Dr. McCallum were able to give any single reason for the increased popularity of the course, but said they believed it was partially caused by the increased enrollment in the commerce, journalism and art courses. All of these departments recommend biology as the laboratory science.

Dr. Rhodes also was of the opinion that the nature of the course had been a contributing factor to the record sign-up. "In this course we try to give our students a practical understanding of the biological sciences," he stated.

In order to house the 21 lab sections, four rooms are in use. Two of them are used 10 hours a day, four days a week. The two professors said they considered themselves fortunate in being able to avoid night lab sections.

Despite the terrific enrollment, it is being planned to give each lab section four field trips during the quarter.

Iota Delta Phi Plans French Play

Members of Iota Delta Phi, French honor society, discussed plans for their annual play, given in French, at their recent meeting. Date of the performance probably will be January 16 or 17, according to Jack Nixon, president.

Plans for an informal initiation to be held at the next meeting and an open house to be held sometime in November also were discussed, Nixon said.

Among the activities that the society participates in is the adoption of several students in France to whom the group sends bundles every month.

The organization also keeps in close contact with French people by corresponding regularly with some of the residents.

est and begins to drone as he hands out the daily dose of knowledge, the chimes musically and pleasantly revive the suffering class for the better part of another quarter hour.

Personally, we seem to be able to judge the attention-getting powers of the professor through the chimes.

When the learned ones are forging ahead under a full head of steam and holding their students by the force of their words, then we don't even hear the music.

Last year's graduating class, in presenting the chimes, possibly had these thoughts in mind. Let's give 'em credit, anyway, and keep those chimes ringing.

Stoddard To Head SJS Ski Club

"Chuck" Stoddard, Jim Payne, Pat Pellett, Beverly Dunbar, Don De Geller, and Bill Wagner were elected officers of the San Jose State college Ski club at its first meeting.

Stoddard is president of the group; Payne, vice president; Miss Pellett, secretary; Miss Dunbar, treasurer; and De Geller and Wagner will serve as historian and club reporter, respectively.

Movies and slides of skiing trips were shown at the meeting by the president. A special meeting to accept new members is to be held in two weeks.

Technicolor movies will be presented at their acceptance meeting, showing many variations of skiing. Mr. Leonard Scroggins, off-campus adviser last year, will continue in the same capacity.

Dues will be collected at the meeting, to which all interested students are invited.

Prexy Visits Capital

Dr. T. W. MacQuarrie left yesterday for Sacramento where he is to attend a state-wide meeting of state college presidents.

While in Sacramento he plans to discuss proposed building projects in connection with expanding facilities here.

Bob Pifferini is an ex-soldier who once played for Modesto junior college. He also plays basketball and baseball.

HUBBARD IS EX-STATE STAR

By PAUL CANE

"Boy, that Bill Hubbard! He sure is a great guy."

One of the present Spartan footballers was talking about his coach.

"I think he's forgotten more football than some of these other coaches will ever learn," the griddier went on to say.

And these words, flattering though they may sound, seem to sum up the situation concerning San Jose State college's professor of football.

Wilbur V. Hubbard, as his name appears on his wife's marriage license, matriculated here at San Jose, and after graduating in 1929 went to Stanford University where he received his Master's degree.

While enrolled as a graduate student at Stanford, Hubbard became acquainted with one Dudley DeGroot, at that time a comparative unknown in football circles. When DeGroot took over the coaching reins of Menlo Junior college in 1930, he took his friend along with him as an assistant coach.

Here they remained for two years until, in 1932, the pair packed their grips and headed to San Jose State college to accept the pigskin position they had been offered.

During their tenure as "Misters Big" in Sparta's quest for athletic prominence they set a sensational record in sport annals by winning 35 games, losing two, and tying one during the 1937, '38, and '39 seasons.

After a short sojourn at Rochester University in New York Hubbard returned to his Alma Mater when DeGroot "turned Pro" by becoming affiliated with the Washington Redskins.

Last season, 1946, was the affable mentor's first as a full-fledged head coach. After a rather inglorious loss to Hardin-Simmons University (last Friday's victory was sweet revenge) and an upset tie with the Hawaii All-Stars, Hubbard's boys got themselves rolling in high gear and completed the remainder of their schedule without a blemish.

Contrary to popular belief there are many more things necessary in the nomenclature of a "good football coach" than the winning of every game on the field. Just as important, if not more so, is the winning of the confidence and friendship of your players.

Evidently the good-looking Hubbard has done that too. His griddier was most enthusiastic when he said, "Boy, that Bill Hubbard! He sure is a great guy."

WRITER DISCOVERS CCAA INTERESTING HISTORY

By PAUL VON HAFFTEN

The year 1940 was an important one in the annals of the history of sports at San Jose State College, as it was this year that the Spartans along with three other California State Colleges formed what is now known as the California Collegiate Athletic Association.

Those three other colleges which banded together to form this conference were San Diego State, Fresno State, and Santa Barbara State. Prior to this year, the Spartans participated in sports independently for several years which included the great 1939 football eleven which former Coach Dud De Groot's Spartans went through an unbeaten year. The brilliant record of CCAA sports reached a dramatic climax last January 1 when Coach Bill Hubbard's highly touted 1946 football champs defeated Utah State college in the Raisin Bowl at Fresno by a score of 20-0.

WAR INTERFERED

The war, however, seriously interfered with the sports program of the CCAA and caused a three year curtailment of athletic competition which wasn't renewed until 1946.

Last year with the additions of College of the Pacific and California Polytechnic College the conference was expanded into a six team league.

Sparta's fortunes of war in CCAA sports have been high especially in football and track. Our elevens have won three championships and lost one while the track squad last year swamped everybody in sight. The boxing and wrestling squads have also had their share of glory. Last year the boxers took the crown in the Winter Carnival, while the 1942 wrestlers were highly successful especially in the Pacific Coast Intercollegiate contests.

COACHES COME AND GO

This conference has seen many famous coaches come and go. Among those who have left are Jimmy "Rabbit" Bradshaw of Fresno and ex All American of Nevada; Ben Winkelman who was at the Spartan helm in 40 and 41 and later at Oregon. Then we cannot forget that legendary "Grand Old Man" of football himself, Amos Alonzo Stagg who was at the College of Pacific and is now having a successful season at Susquehanna College in Pennsylvania.

Among the noted coaches who have remained in command are Glenn Hartranft, now our athletic director, Bill Hubbard, Charley Walker, Bob Bronzan, Dee Portal, Bud Winter, and Walt McPherson. New coaches include Larry Seimring of COP, Jimmy Gleason of Fresno, Walt Williams and Ted Mumby of San Jose.

GREAT ATHLETES

The conference has had its share of outstanding individual star athletes. These include Willie Steel of San Diego and Bob Likens in track. Pete Bolch, Stan Smith, Wayne Fontes of the Spartans were outstanding boxers.

Hans Weidenhofer and Freddie

BASKETBALL TEAM OPENS DRILLS

The Spartan basketball squad opened practice yesterday in the Men's gym with a light workout. Newcomers drilled first on the hardwoods and returning veterans from last year's varsity and junior varsity teams took over later in the afternoon.

Bob Hagen, Stu Inman, and Bob Wuesthoff, returning letterman, were present to work out with the experienced squad. John Doolittle, up from Coach Bob Bronzan's fast JayVee squad, also was on hand to participate in the drill.

Coach Walt McPherson plans two evening workouts and one afternoon workout when the squad begins practice in earnest next week.

The Spartan cage headman will be hampered as most of his experienced players currently are busy with football.

Schedule for this year's casaba team will be released shortly. San Jose will have a freshman squad this year which probably will be coached by Bronzan when the pigskin season is completed.

FENCING MAY BE REVIVED

The revival of fencing as a competitive sport is in its embryonic stages, but Burt Marks, transfer student from Los Angeles, is busily working at arrangements which may place the rapier artists on an inter-collegiate basis next year.

Marks has had his request sanctioned by Glenn Hartranft of the Physical Education department to the effect that any male students interested in fencing may form as a club and use the equipment in the Men's gymnasium.

Any students desirous of participating in this sport may secure more information by contacting Marks through Box "M" in the coop.

Albright took the PCI titles in 1942, while football has had such noted stars as Jackie Fellows of Fresno, Alan Hardisty, Wilbur Wool, and Fred Lindsay of San Jose.

Lillo Marcucio and Bob Di Pietro, who were with the Spartan baseball nines during this interval are now starring for Stockton and San Jose in the California State League. In basketball Bert Robinson and Dutch Boysen have been the Spartan mainstays.

WATER POLOISTS PLAY CAL AGGIES

By JOHN GOTHBERG

After losing a heartbreaking five to four match to the Golden Bears Wednesday, the varsity water polo team will try for its first win of the season tonight against the California Aggies at Davis.

Coach Charley Walker was very impressed with the showing his men made against the strong California varsity.

"We'll do even better after another week of practice," the good natured water polo mentor said after the one point defeat at the hands of the Bears.

He was particularly impressed with the fine work of Dick Bartels at the goalie position. Bartels, who has never played at that post before, replaced Dick Anderson who will be ineligible to play.

Other San Jose men who played an outstanding game were Tudor Bogart, Ed Rudloff, and Otis Keeler. Although the Spartans did not have a sprint man to match the speedy John Morketter of California, they made up for it by their excellent handling of the ball and heads up playing.

Following men are likely starters for San Jose State college against the Aggies tonight: Dick Bartels, goalie; Wilmer Grass, Ed Rudloff, and Otis Keeler, forwards; and Tudor Bogart, Howard Ruweler, and Eugene Foley, back positions.

SENIORS INVITED TO ATTEND CLASS BARBECUE

Sal Millan, senior class president, invites seniors to attend the "Senior Roundup" barbecue on Thursday, October 16.

The event, to be held at the new campus barbecue, will feature student entertainment and community singing off the screen, according to Millan. Films of Spardi Gras 1946-47 will also be shown, he added.

Head chefs for the affair are Hal Riddle and George Genevro. Publicity and art is under the chairmanship of Frances Fitzgerald, assisted by Rose Louise, Eleanor Freitas, Bob Culp, and Pat Davidson.

Tickets, available for 65 cents, are on sale at the library arch, says Arlene Ross, committee chairman.

Members of the ticket committee include: Duke Davis, Lenore Valerio, Adele Bertolotti, Janice Paull, Dot McAllister, Meredith Hughes, Norma Martin, Maggie McLean, Bev Clay, Elaine Kahn, Bonnie Galbreath, Margaret Robinson, and Helen Zucksworth.

TEACHING JOBS ARE AVAILABLE

Miss Doris K. Robinson, head of the Placement office, announced today that there are many opportunities for teaching positions and office work now open to veterans' wives.

Miss Robinson declared she had received a number of calls recently that emphasized the plea for elementary teachers.

All of the positions available are in San Jose or within commuting distance, she stated.

H. BRODIE IN DISPLAY OF ART

Works of Howard Brodie, staff artist for the San Francisco Chronicle, will be on display in the Art department beginning Monday, announces Warren W. Faus, chairman of the exhibition committee.

Mr. Brodie is well known for his cartoons in the Sporting Green section of the Chronicle and for his work in Yank Magazine during the war.

His work will be of especial interest to art majors and sports fans, according to Mr. Faus.

Also on display during the same period will be an exhibit of ceramics from the Palo Alto junior museum. This exhibit was brought to San Jose State college under the direction of Evelyn Moitso, a 1947 graduate art major, now working in the museum.

The collection contains the work of children from the first grade through high school.

HUBBARD'S MEN TO GET ROBUST WELCOME HOME

A lively homecoming reception for Coach Bill Hubbard and his Spartan gridders is scheduled for Monday afternoon, according to Rally Committee Chairman Betty Louthan.

"Placards will be distributed around campus Monday morning," says Miss Louthan, "and when the team reaches Oakland, Coach Hubbard is to phone the exact time of arrival in San Jose so that we may complete the signs."

A pep band and Cheer Leaders Glen Stewart and Bob Barron will be present to give added zest to the welcome.

Twelve card stunts, coordinated with band activities, are promised the student body by Al Raffaelli, card stunt chairman, and Jim Gillem, drum major. They have been working together in preparation for the Santa Barbara game, October 17.

WILLEY IS PREXY OF MU DELTA PI

George Willey was elected president of Mu Delta Pi, new service-social fraternity, at their meeting Wednesday evening, held in the home of Barton Johnson.

Other elected officers were Rex Parrish, vice-president; Dudley Blabon, treasurer; Dave Cassin, secretary; George Link, corresponding secretary, and Glenn Abell, sergeant-at-arms.

Mr. Lowell Pratt, of the journalism faculty, has been selected as the organization adviser, and was introduced to the group by George Link.

Following the election, plans were made regarding the Mu Delta Pi dinner to be held Friday evening at the Fior D'Italia.

PI BETA SIGMA STARTS DANCE

Pi Beta Sigma, newest on-campus social fraternity, has announced a dancing club for San Jose State college students.

The club will hold classes at the Palomar Ballroom for beginners or those who wish to improve their dancing style. The classes are to be conducted by two professional dance directors, and will run for five weeks, according to Mel Hulse, vice-president of the organization.

There will be two classes for those interested, one in Latin American dances and one in the American style of dancing. Sign-ups for both sets of classes will be conducted Wednesday, Thursday, and Friday of next week in the Library Arch.

The cost of the classes, which will continue for a period of five weeks, will be seven and a half dollars, paid in advance. The first meeting of the dancers will be in a special "get acquainted" class and dance to be held Monday, October 20.

The class in Latin American dancing will commence Thursday, October 23, and the American class will start Monday, October 27. Instructions in both classes will begin at 8 p.m.

PITMAN GOES TO CONFAB

Dean of Men Paul M. Pitman, acting as official representative of San Jose State college, will attend a conference of Northern California colleges and universities participating in the World Student Service Fund at Marin Junior college, Sunday, October 12.
