

REFERENCES

- Pereda, Carlos (2019), "On Mexican Philosophy, For Example", Comparative Philosophy 10.1: 193-208.
https://doi.org/10.31979/2151-6014\(2019\).100113.100113)
- Rickless, Samuel C. (2018), "Brief for an Inclusive Anti-Canon", Metaphilosophy 49.1-2: 167-81.
- Sanchez, Robert E. (2014), "Strengthening the Case for Latin American Philosophy: Beyond Cultural Resources", APA Newsletter on Hispanic/Latino Issues 13.2: 1-9.
- Sánchez, Carlos (2018), "The Gift of Mexican Historicism", Continental Philosophy Review 51.3: 439-57.
<https://doi.org/10.1007/s11007-017-9425-5>
- Vargas, Manuel (2010), "The Value of Philosophy: The Latin American Case", Comparative Philosophy 1.1: 33-52. https://doi.org/10.31979/2151-6014\(2010\).010105.010105)
- Vargas, Manuel (forthcoming a), "The Philosophy of Accidentality", The Journal of the American Philosophical Association.
- Vargas, Manuel (forthcoming b), "Canonical Philosophy, Mexican Philosophy", APA Newsletter on Hispanic/Latino Issues.